

"Your Prompt Financing Meant Added Profit"

One man in Evanston needed immediate cash to take advantage of a favorable opportunity for building a new home.

Another, in Highland Park, wanted to refinance a loan that was due on his house.

A third was arranging the sale of a house in Winnetka that depended on a satisfactory first mortgage to provide a convenient method of payment.

All three came to Quinlan & Tyson. This organization, through its representatives in each township, was able to make a prompt check of their property. Our complete records, compiled during 44 years on the North Shore, were referred to. And because our first mortgage securities have a constant and ready market, we were immediately able to advance the necessary cash to all three men.

"That kind of assistance is surely valuable," said one later. "Your prompt financing meant added profit for me."

The broad resources for financing available through this close-coupled organization are at your service, if your property is on the North Side or North Shore. Bring your plans here for discussion, and prompt action.
