

A State Bank

When Doubt Perplexes

THAT is an excellent time to stop in and have a talk with your banker. For his outside point of view may give a "slant" on your problems that will prove most helpful. His judgment is matured and will supplement yours. And in the Winnetka Trust and Savings Bank you will find the Officers very glad to co-operate and work with you.

Consultation is a component part of a banking service which in this bank is made to expedite and develop the business of our customers. We hope you will not hesitate to call upon us at any time.

Urge Flower Lovers to Exhibit in June Lake Forest Show

All entries for the flower show to be held on Saturday, June 16, and Sunday, June 17, in the service buildings of Mrs. Rockefeller McCormick's estate in Lake Forest were to be in by June 12, announces the committee in charge, of which Mrs. Andrews King is chairman. The Lake Forest Garden club is sponsoring the show, which is primarily to illustrate the decorative uses, and the best quality of June flowers and flowering shrubs. Judges will take into consideration the decorative use and effect of the exhibit. Entries must be in the hands of Mrs. King, 165 Green Bay road, Lake Forest, by 6 o'clock on Tuesday, June 12. All who are interested in gardens and flowers are urged to exhibit. The show is not limited to garden club members.

The first class will have a section for arrangements by children 10 years old or under, and a second section for a child's supper table arranged by children 11 to 15 years inclusive.

The second class is for a flower arrangement, with section 1 showing an arrangement in any metal vase; section 2, in any pitcher; section 3, for Chinese or Japanese effect, with (a) shrubs, and (b) cut flowers; section 4, an arrangement of flowers in a chopping bowl, the bowl to be treated in any way chosen by the exhibitor, who may use plants or cut flowers. An accurate and legible list of plant material used must accompany the exhibits in Class 2. Classes 1 and 2 will be judged on the following points: individuality, color harmony, proportion of plant material to container, arrangement of bloom.

Class 3 has a section 1 showing a luncheon table not to exceed $14.99 in cost, to be set for six. Accessories must include linen (no napkins required), six plates, and six glasses, all other decorations to be optional. Flowers or fruit may be excluded from the price. Section 2 is for a breakfast tray for one, all equipment to be furnished by the exhibitor. Section 3 is for a dinner table for six, no price limit having been set.

Class 4 is for floral pictures, and Class 5 for border planting. Mantel decorations make up class 6, the decoration to consist of vase or vases of flowers and other suitable ornaments. Pictures, and mirrors, may be used, but no andirons, grates, or fire-irons. Awards will be made for the composition as a whole, the general effect and harmony of the flowers and accessories to be the first consideration. This class is limited to ten entries.

Class 7 is for Iris, section 1 calls for twelve varieties, and section 2 for six. Each variety in the above sections must be clearly and correctly labeled or be eliminated. Class 8 is for peonies, section 1 calling for twelve varieties and section 2 for six. Class 9 is for the philadelphus, showing four varieties. Plant material only will be considered in judging the classes of iris, peonies, and philadelphus.

Happiness Hut Newest Tea Room and Gift Shop

The Happiness Hut Tea Room and Gift Shop announces its formal opening Tuesday, June 19, at Waukegan road and Grove street, Glenview.
