Consider the Hedge
for usefulness and beauty

The simplest hedge is always a much more pleasing marker for a property line than the most artistic of fences. A hedge is always in good taste between the lawn and sidewalk, on either side of the entrance walk, at side property limits, between the front and rear yards, around the garden, porch and garage, or to shield service areas.

Fiore hedge stock comes direct from our own nurseries, and therefore is thoroughly acclimated for planting on your home grounds.

Leon Errol Escorts His Trick Pins to Granada

Leon Errol, musical comedy and revue star, will make his bow to Granada theater audiences beginning tomorrow. He will appear in "There It Goes" with a cast of stars, many of them brought here by Leon Errol himself.

"There It Goes" is an extravaganza, said to be one of the most pretentious ever brought to a motion picture theater. It is the second of the "Banner Month" shows at the Granada.

Leon Errol has never before made a personal appearance in a motion picture theater, having appeared exclusively for many years in such big revues and musical comedies as "Sally," "Louis XIV," "Ziegfeld Follies," "Yours Truly" and many others. He is not cast in the show as an act but will work through the entire performance of over one hour, repeating for Granada patrons the little stunts, songs, and antics which have gained for him his stardom and popularity.

The famous collapsible leg will be much in evidence—in fact the title of the show, "There It Goes," has been named as a tribute to the wobbling and unsteady left leg that has created so much laughter among theater audiences in the last few years.

The vitaphone will bring the voice of another great screen star to the Granada next week, for Lois Wilson, leading lady of a score of excellent photoplays, will be heard in a sketch entitled "Miss Information."

Harold Lloyd in "Speedy" Booked on Varsity Screen

William Boyd and Sue Carol have the leads in "Skyscraper" to be shown at the Varsity theater this Saturday. It is the romantic story of two hard-boiled steel workers and of two girls, who are dainty and beautiful. Most of the action takes place high on the steel framework of a half-completed building. The novelty of scenes filmed there is equalled by a sequence in an amusement park.

"An ingenious and high-powered comedy," says one critic of Harold Lloyd's "Speedy," which is to be the main attraction at the Varsity Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday of next week. Lloyd captures all the dash and excitement of Manhattan in this picture. He took a year to make it, and it was time well expended. The picture is praised as a "corking rib-tickler." Ann Christy was chosen from Hollywood's thousands of extras for the feminine lead because of her long hair.

The famous Dorothy Mackaill-Jack Mulhall starring combination is not at all disappointing in "Lady Be Good," coming to the Varsity next Thursday and Friday. The team goes over big in this snappy screen version of the recent musical show. Dorothy is not only a clever comedienne and dancer but has a perfect right to lay claim to a perfect right—and left. Jack is better than usual as the young magician who can get anything out of his hat but the rent money.
