

'Pears Like Smith Is Being Razzed a Bit in This Yarn

(Contributed)

The Spruce street baseball team added the Triangle club's All-Winnetka team to their list of challengers last Tuesday when the Spruce tribe handed them an 11-5 set-back. The game was a closely contested and hard-fought affair from start to finish. The victors went right out in the first few innings and got most of their runs, so Luchessi was able to take it easy and coast to victory.

The Triangle club stars made a valiant attempt to tie the score in the last inning when they sent three men over the plate. The score might have been a little closer had not Connor hit into a double killing with all the corners occupied and no outs.

With the sole intention of stopping the winning streak of the Gangsters, the Triangle club imported "Rat" Smith to do the hurling for them. Smith, who got too good for the Winnetka outfit in previous years and left their ranks to be the ace for Wilmette, is pitching for the Northwestern Dental school where he has hung up quite an enviable record. However, it was very evident that he has not met any real opposition, for the victors got to him from the first inning, and put enough runs over to win and then coasted

Winnetka Students Have Part in Music Recital

Two recitals by students of the Highland Park Music school, Ethel Lathrop Marley, director, were given Friday and Saturday of last week at Trinity Episcopal church in Highland Park. Twenty-nine piano and violin students appeared on the first program and twenty-seven on the second, among them Mary Ellen Palmer, Josephine Seyl and Richard Oliver of Winnetka. The Winnetka branch of the school is located at 585 Lincoln avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Newman, formerly of Winnetka, and who have been residing in Chicago for the last two winters, have taken the Harry P. Clark house, 958 Spruce street, for the summer. Their daughter, Miss Margaret, who just recently graduated from the Chicago Normal School of Physical Education, will be with them. She is taking a few children for a day school along, so as not to impair his reputation too greatly.

The Spruce street team is composed of all players living on Spruce street. They consist of the Runnfeldt Bros., Flynn Bros., Belmont Bros., Anderson, Woods, Hohlfelder, and Luchessi.

Next Tuesday the Gangsters will play the rejuvenated Fell team, and the following Friday will clash with the Wilmette All Stars. All games are played at Skokie school at 6:30.

TRUCK AND CAR COLLIDE

A truck driven by George Huntley, 4504 George street, Chicago, collided with a car driven by Hayes O'Brien, 122 Lake avenue, Highland Park, at Linden avenue and Willow road, Winnetka, Tuesday at 1 o'clock. The fenders and bumpers were slightly damaged, but no one was hurt, according to Officer Ralph Rayburn.

STUDIES AT CHICAGO U.

Miss Ella Free, second grade teacher at Hubbard Woods, will take six weeks of summer work at the University of Chicago before going to her home at Dillon, Mont., for the remainder of the summer.

AT JUNIOR CAMP

Miss Marion Elwell, principal of the Hubbard Woods school, will be head counselor of the Pinewood Junior camp at Brutus, Mich., this summer. Miss Elwell has spent nine summers at this camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Kreiter and daughter, of 575 Provident avenue, who have been in Kissimmee, Florida all winter, have returned to their home for a short stay before leaving for their summer home at Lake Hamlin, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Mecklenberger and children, 985 Spruce street, who have been in Arizona all winter, will return to their home this week-end after spending a fortnight in Washington, D. C.
