

N. U. Grads Flock to Alumni Day Festivities

Fifteen hundred Northwestern university graduates are expected at the annual Alumni day festivities on the Evanston campus this Saturday, according to Dr. John Cadman, chairman of the committee in charge. Reports indicate an unusually large out-of-town attendance, several mid-western alumni clubs sending representatives.

Horace Goodrich, graduate with the class of 1860, son of Grant Goodrich, one of the founders of the university, will probably lead the grand parade which is scheduled to start at 12:30, leading from University place to Patten gymnasium. The annual luncheon, featured by revived class rivalries, will be held this year in the gymnasium.

The afternoon's program includes a moving picture show, depicting student life at the university during the past year, a baseball game, and the annual all-university dinner, to be held at the Orrington hotel at 6 p. m. Several classes and fraternities are arranging for reunions at the same hour.

The Medical school will hold its alumni clinics in the War Memorial building on McKinlock campus, Chicago, from 10 to 12 a. m., and from 2 to 4 p. m.

The School of Music alumni will dine at the North Shore hotel at 6 p. m. Alumni of the School of Speech will meet in Annie May Swift hall at 5 p. m., have their annual supper there at 6 p. m., and at 7:30 attend the Playshop drama, "The Undercurrent" written by Mrs. Fay Ehlert, Northwestern student.

The Associate Alumnae are inviting alumni and friends of the university to a garden party to be held from 4 to 6 p. m. on the South campus.

President Walter Dill Scott's annual reception to the alumni will be held in Patten gymnasium from 9 to 11 p. m.

Give Luncheon For Skokie Teachers, Leaving

Teachers of the Skokie school who will not return next year were guests of the faculty of the school at a luncheon held in the school cafeteria Thursday noon.

Following is a brief account of the plans of the non-returning teachers:

Miss Inez Pomeroy, teacher of English and social problems, is to be married this summer.

Mrs. Alice Larkin, biology instructor, will be principal of a school for widows and orphans near Wheeling.

Frank Bailey, science instructor, will study for his doctor's degree at the University of Chicago.

E. S. Ostergren, manual training instructor, will be superintendent of the school at Thompson Falls, Mont.

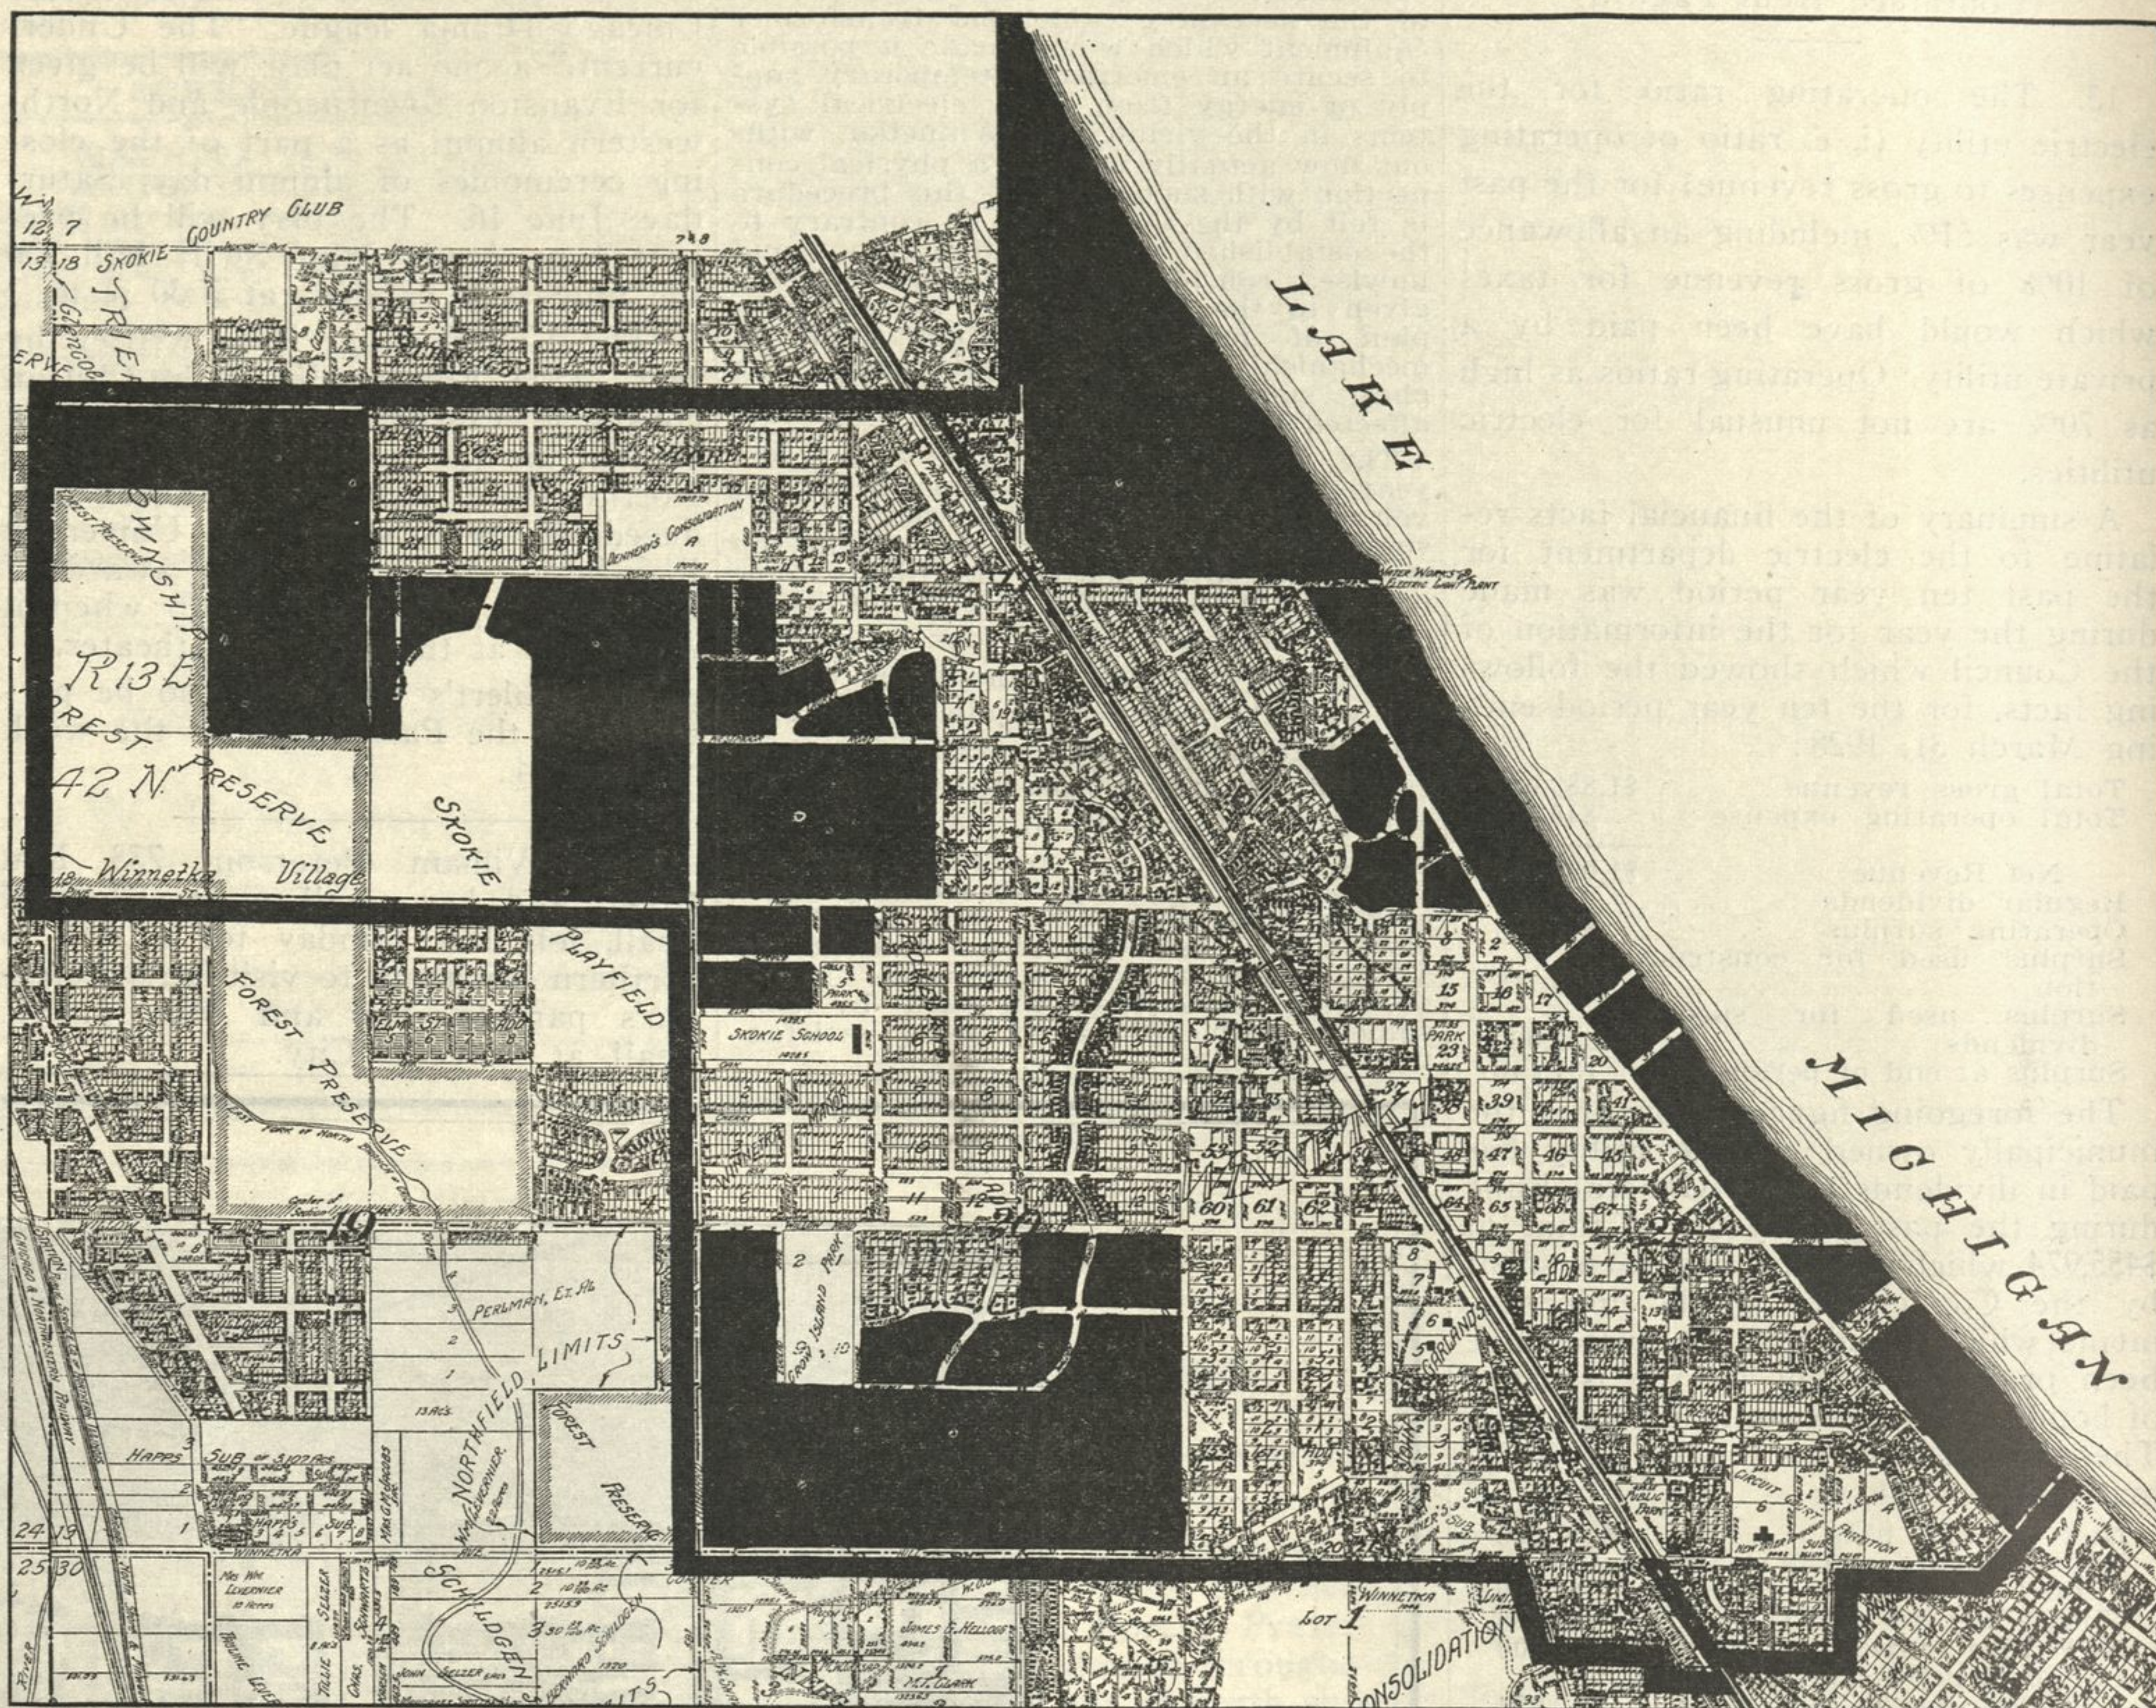

W. J. Denman, band instructor, has accepted a similar position in a Detroit suburb.

Miss Rebecca Mitchell, sixth grade teacher, and Miss Hazel Wissman, who has been in charge of the school cafeteria, have made no definite plans.

Calvary Choir Concert To be Given June 21

On Thursday evening, June 21, at 8:15, in Kimball hall, the Vested Choir of the Calvary Presbyterian church of Chicago will give a concert of sacred and secular choral numbers that will be well worth the attention of music lovers. The choir is under the personal direction of Haydn Owens, the well-known leader of Chicago's famous Haydn Choral society. The program will include numbers by the old masters, of church music, modern Russian and American composers. As an added feature of the program, Rollin Pease will sing a number of songs.

Proposed New "AA" Residential Zone

Area bounded by Hill road, Church road and south limits of Winnetka, and area shown in black, proposed to be re-zoned to "AA" residence district. A public hearing on the question was conducted before the Winnetka Commission on Zoning, at the Council chamber at the Village hall, Monday evening.

Kenilworth Boys to Have Busy Season of Camping

Boys of the Joseph Sears school at Kenilworth, who have just completed a successful season of athletic activities under the direction of Bob Townley, will have opportunity for a full program of outdoor summer work before the opening of the football season next fall.

Eighteen of the boys will leave with Mr. Townley, July 5, on a special train bound for Owakone, Ontario, in the Canadian wilds, where they will spend the summer at "Duke" Child's camp. "Duke," who for many years has been head of the athletic department at New Trier Township high school, maintains the summer camp for north shore boys. About 100 of them attend each year.

The Kenilworth boys who will go to the camp with Bob Townley in three weeks are: David Skillin, Paul Cornell, Jack Mervis, Bobby Berger, Tom Hildebrandt, Jack Sinding, George Benson, Jack O'Connor, George Woodland, Bill Timmins, Tom Smith, Murrey MacLeod, Tom White, Elwood Mons, Jack Stebbins, Tom Sinding, Bob Richardson, and Bob Joslin.

In addition to the eighteen boys who are going to the Canadian camp, five other boys will leave June 25 for Camp Checaugau, the north shore Boy Scouts' camp. The following Kenilworth Scouts will go: George Manlove, James Lang, Frank Williams, Claude Hamilton, and Paul Gilbert.

Those boys who are unable to go to one of the camps already mentioned will have opportunity to spend a day or a week at Camp North Shore, where Ted Grant, assistant Scout executive for the north shore, is in charge. Here all boys will have opportunity to take the various Scout tests.

The plan is to have all Kenilworth boys taking part in healthful outdoor activities during the summer months. The girls are not to be neglected. Many of them will attend the Girls' Scout and outing camps in Wisconsin and Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra S. Taylor, who, with their children, have been occupying the home of Mrs. Frank Fuller at 98 Church road, are moving to 1235 Astor street, Chicago. Mrs. Taylor is motoring east with her children in July and will spend the summer in Nantucket, Mass. Mrs. Fuller is returning to Winnetka about June 15. She has spent the winter in Europe.

Miss Helen Aldrich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. I. Aldrich of 394 Chestnut street, returned to her home last week from Ferry hall where she has studied this winter. She brought with her, Miss Harriett Griffiths, who also attends Ferry hall. Miss Griffiths stayed here a few days and then both girls went into Chicago to be with Miss Griffiths' family.

Mrs. Thomas Coyne of Kenilworth is entertaining her luncheon and sewing club this afternoon at her home on Melrose avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Coyne are planning a possible trip to the Wisconsin woods in the near future.
