

Postmasters Cite New Mailing Rates Effective July 1

Uncle Sam is revising his postal rates, many of them, at least, and making numerous other changes in regulations, etc., all of which will become effective July 1. A few of the rates are being revised downward.

Postmasters are diligently studying all the new provisions, that they may readily acquaint the public with them. The Lake County and North Shore Postmasters' association will hold a special meeting at North Chicago, June 28, to discuss the new postage rates.

The rate on private mailing cards (post cards), which was raised to two cents sometime ago, will go back to one cent.

Mail which could formerly be registered up to one hundred dollars only, can be registered up to one thousand dollars under the new regulations. The rates on such registration will range from fifteen cents to one dollar.

The new regulation in regard to mail with postage due reads as follows: "An added charge of one cent for each ounce shall be collected on first class matter reaching the office of address short paid more than one rate, or two cents; that is, if a letter is short paid only two cents that amount shall be collected as postage due on delivery, but if a letter or other first class matter is short paid more than two cents, then the deficient postage and an additional charge of one cent for each ounce or fraction thereof shall be collected on delivery."

The rate on second class matter for re-mailing will be cut in half when the new regulations go into effect. This rate was formerly two cents for each two ounces or fraction thereof. After July 1 it will be one cent for each two ounces. For example, if the postage for mailing the WINNETKA TALK was eight cents under the old ruling, it will be only four cents after this month.

According to the new regulations the two cent service charge on parcel post applies only to the first three zones. For the other zones it will be only one cent, or a decrease of fifty per cent.

Mail for dispatch by airplane will be accepted for registration upon prepayment by postage stamp affixed of the required registration fee in addition to the airplane postage.
