

Opens Recreation School for Small Children Here

Miss Betsy Shapker of 823 Central avenue, Wilmette, will start the group of children in her outdoor recreation school on their summer's play Monday morning. This is her own private school, assembling a group of twenty-five children between the ages of 4 and 8 years for a summer play-hour.

INTRODUCTORY SERMON

Dr. George D. Allison, new pastor of the Wilmette Baptist church, will give his introductory sermon Sunday morning, June 24, at the 11 o'clock services. The sermon theme will be, "A Minister's Ambition."

Dr. and Mrs. John H. Cadmus and Miss Edwina Cadmus, 1163 Tower road, left last Sunday morning for their summer home in Indiana sand dunes. Mrs. Cadmus and her daughter will spend the summer there while Dr. Cadmus will spend the week-ends with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Francis Tuells and family have recently moved into the log cabin at 960 Greenwood avenue, Hubbard Woods.

Miss Ruth returned from Carlton where she has completed her junior year, and Miss Phoebe from Rockford, where she has completed her sophomore year.

Mrs. Harry A. Yates of 96 Church road is at St. Luke's hospital recovering from a serious operation performed Tuesday of this week.

It's Dear Madam Nowadays at Our Kenilworth P. O.

Mrs. Harriet Savage is the new acting postmaster, (pardon us—postmistress) at Kenilworth. She took over her new duties Saturday, June 16.

Mrs. Savage succeeds W. S. Blanchard, who has been postmaster at Kenilworth for two years and a resident of the north shore for nine years. Mr. Blanchard expects to leave about July 1 for Morris, Ill., where he will enter business.

The Kenilworth postoffice has grown considerably during the time that Mr. Blanchard has been postmaster. City delivery has been established and there are now more outgoing and incoming mails. The postoffice fixtures have been remodeled and re-arranged.

Service to the public has been the aim of the Kenilworth postoffice in the past and will continue to be the aim during Mrs. Savage's term of office.

GIVE OFFICE PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Rush C. Butler, 40 Locust road, entertained at their annual office party last Saturday. The guests were 108 office workers employed by Mr. Butler, and their families. After the noon luncheon, games were played.
