These Fellows Play Here Sunday

Winnetka's ball team will make an attempt this Sunday to dethrone another championship nine; this time it is Mr. Keller's All-Nations squad from Waukegan, pictured above. This team annexed the Lake county amateur championship last season. The All-Nations are coached by "Tiny" Goodbred, the largest man in amateur baseball. "Tiny" stands about 6 feet 6 inches and tips the scales at close to three hundred pounds. What's more, "Tiny" claims to be the Nick Altrock-"Al" Schaack combination all in one in the amateur ranks. He is noted for keeping the fans in a constant uproar from the start of the game to finish.

Incidentally it should be mentioned that the All-Nations have already taken the Waukegan K. of L.'s into camp this season by a score of 7 to 4. Those Winnetka fans who saw the Winnetka-Waukegan K. of L. game, which the K. of L.'s won 5 to 4, know well that an interesting battle is in store for tomorrow.

George Panosh will again do the mound work for the local contingent. George, to date, has a strikeout average record of ten per game. In the K. of L. game he sent eleven back to the bench via the strike-out route. Such a record deserves commendation.

The game tomorrow will be played on the Skokie Playfield diamond, Elm street and Hibbard road. Starting time is 3 o'clock.

Because Old Pluvius insisted that no baseball games were to be played last Sunday, the local athletes contented themselves with doing things other than playing ball. The North Chicago-Winnetka game, to be played last Sunday, promised to be one of the best engagements of the season, in that the North Chicago troupe had already scalped Wilmette by a lopsided score. The two teams are scheduled to meet again, however, so the local fans will not be disappointed. Two dates have already been set for games between these two teams—July 15 and 29.

ATTENDS COMMENCEMENT

E. L. Nygaard, superintendent of the Kenilworth Public schools, returned Wednesday from Oberlin, Ohio, where he had gone the previous Thursday. Mr. Nygaard attended the graduation exercises at Oberlin college, where his nephew was a member of the class of 1928.

Mrs. W. W. Branigar and her daughter, Katherine, of Leicester road, Kenilworth, returned several weeks ago from their winter home at Gulf Hills, Biloxi, Miss. Miss Mary Branigar returned last week from Miss Bennett's school, in Millbrook, N. Y., where she has been attending school for the past year.
