Wilmette Man New Head of Savings Organization

Roy R. Marquardt, assistant vice-president of the First Trust and Savings bank, Chicago, and a resident of Wilmette, has been elected president of the Savings Association of Loop Banks composed of more than twenty of the large downtown banks.

Mr. Marquardt has been a member of the executive committee of the association and is active in committee work of the American Bankers' association, having recently addressed the mid-west conference of that organization on "Human Engineering—A Business Need."

AT ROTARY CONVENTION

R. L. F. Biesemeier, supervising engineer and purchasing agent at New Trier High school, is in Minneapolis this week attending the Rotary convention.

Miss Katherine Benson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Benson of Kenilworth, gave a garden party for thirty-two New Trier freshmen on Tuesday night June 12. The boys and girls danced on the terrace to the music of Tony Prince's accordion.

SOUSA BAND COMING

N. U. Associate Alumnae and League of Women Voters Sponsoring Two-Concert Benefit

The associate alumnae of Northwestern university, together with the Evanston League of Women Voters, are sponsoring two concerts by Sousa and his band Saturday, September 22, in the Patten gymnasium. In the afternoon the program will be selected to appeal to children, while the evening concert will be for adults.

The concert is under the management of Mrs. W. T. Hall, president of the associate alumnae; Mrs. Martin Kent Northam, president of the Evanston League of Women Voters; Mrs. Charles H. Betts, treasurer for the benefit; and Mrs. Leighton Jones and Mrs. U. S. Grant, co-chairmen of tickets.

Those acting on the general committee as representatives of the following organizations are: Mrs. Wirt Humphrey, the Woman's Building association of the University Guild; Mrs. E. B. Fowler, the Quadrangle association of Northwestern; Dorothy Mohr, Sigma Sigma Delta, the open sorority organization on the campus; Mrs. James A. James, University circle; Dorothy Lewis, Young Woman's auxiliary of the Woman's club of Evanston; Mrs. W. M. Parkes, Evanston Junior league; Mrs. Benton McMillan, Grade schools of Evanston; Mrs. Richard Breedon, parochial schools; Mrs. R. S. McCall, Chicago area; Mrs. Harvey Edwards, League of Women Voters; Mrs. E. H. Schulze and Mrs. Grace Hanbury, McKinlock campus, Chicago. Plans are being made to have representatives in all of the north shore towns as well, co-operating with this committee in the carrying out of its plans.

The press committee for the concert is composed of Martha Bennett, Louise Paullin, Helen Nixon, and Genevieve Forbes Herrick.

An enthusiastic meeting was held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Martin Kent Northam in Evanston, during which plans for the benefit were made.

Tickets for the concerts now are on sale.

Children Compete for Black Hills Vacation

Some boy or girl in the Middle West is going to enjoy a vacation in the scenic Black Hills of South Dakota, all expenses, including those of a guardian, paid, for winning a letter-writing contest, according to announcements being made daily during "Baby Ruth Candy Time" programs from the Chicago Daily News Radio station WMAQ at 5 p. m., Chicago daylight savings time.

The contest, which is being sponsored by Otto Y. Schnering, president of the Curtiss Candy company, is for the best letter written by any boy or girl between the ages of 6 and 18, on "Why I Like Baby Ruth Candy."

The winner will be awarded a two weeks' trip from Chicago to Rapid City, South Dakota, and return, via the Chicago and North Western railway, all expenses paid, including railroad and Pullman transportation, ten days spent at the new Alex Johnson hotel at Rapid City and Scenic motor tours of the Black Hills Transportation company for himself or herself and guardian. The guardian may be either parent of the winner or any one of age appointed by them.
