Plans Complete for Scott-Keep Wedding June 30

Miss Isabel Scott is at present in Detroit attending the wedding of Miss Romaine Warren and John P. Wilson, Jr., both of whom will take part in Miss Scott's wedding next Saturday afternoon. A week or so ago Miss Scott went east to attend the graduation of her fiancé at Princeton and went directly to Detroit from there. She is expected to return to Winnetka early next week and will crowd a great deal of activity into the few remaining days before she becomes the bride of Albert Keep.

On Tuesday, June 26, Mrs. John W. Scott is entertaining in her honor at a sports party and luncheon. That evening Mrs. Robert Cluett is to give a dinner and later take the guests to Ravinia for the opera. On Wednesday evening Miss Eleanor Dennehy will give a barn dance for Miss Scott and Mr. Keep. Thursday evening brings the spinster dinner given by Miss Winifred Smith and Miss Emily Otis and Mr. Keep's bachelor dinner.

The last affair will be the bridal dinner given Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. John Edwin Scott for the bridal parties and the two families.

The wedding ceremony is to take place on the afternoon of June 30, at the Winnetka Congregational church and the reception will follow in the gardens of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Scott, of 175 Sheridan road.

Miss Scott will have as her attendants, her sister, Mrs. F. Langdon Hubbard of Detroit, as matron of honor; Miss Ellen Ewing of New York as her maid of honor; and as bridesmaids the Misses Eleanor Dennehy, Barbara Mettler, Emily Otis, Winifred Smith, Ellen Stuart, Mrs. John P. Wilson, Jr., (Romaine Warren), Cynthia Wilson, Virginia Wilson, and Mrs. Donald Phelps Welles.

The men in the wedding party will be John P. Wilson, Jr., of Chicago, C. T. Williams, Jr., and Gordon H. Harper of Baltimore, A. Z. F. Wood of Terre Haute, Emory Ford of Detroit, Clement Hackney of Milwaukee, F. Langdon Hubbard of Detroit, and Francis Drake, John M. Blair, Thomas P. Field, George T. Bunker, Jr., of Chicago, and Frederick H. Scott, Jr.

Helen Motty Is Bride of William B. Renshaw

When Miss Helen Motty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Motty of Evanston, became the bride of William Beresford Renshaw of Winnetka she wore a becoming bouffant bridal gown of white satin trimmed in seed pearls and Chantilly lace. A train of heavy satin and heirloom rose point lace fell from her shoulders under her veil of rare rose point which was brought from Europe last summer by the mother of the groom. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

The wedding took place Saturday evening in the Lady chapel of St. Luke's church at 8:30. Dr. George Craig Stewart performed the ceremony.

The matron of honor, Mrs. T. B. Tate of Lexington, Ky., was gowned in a bouffant frock of orchid taffeta and lace. She carried an armful of roses and daisies.

Miss Jane Renshaw and Miss Eleanor McDonnell, as bridesmaids, wore frocks of green taffeta and lace, and carried yellow daisies and butterfly roses.

John Sheppard of New York served as best man for Mr. Renshaw. Isaac Dixon of Princeton, N. J., and Harvey Knight of Evanston ushered. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Evanston Woman's club.

Mr. and Mrs. Renshaw are motoring to Cape Cod and New York. They will be at home after August 1 at 1018 Main street, Evanston.

Helena Bradford Weds at Union League Club

When Miss Helena Crews Bradford of Winnetka became the bride of Garold Clairmont Jenison Saturday evening, June 16, she was simply gowned in white satin embroidered with pearls. Her veil hung from a coronet of Brussels lace and she carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. Her sister, Miss Virginia Bradford, who was her only attendant, wore a gown of pale green chiffon and carried pink roses.

Just previous to the ceremony, which was performed by candlelight at the Union League club, Mary Mitchell Maier, soprano, sang "Perfect Love," James Mitchell sang "Loves Coronation" and there was a duet, "At Dawning." A reception followed immediately after the ceremony had been performed by the Reverend J. Findlay Brown and later there was supper and dancing. The rooms in which the ceremony was performed and the reception held, were decorated with many palms and summer garden flowers.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. G. Jenison, the mother of the groom, Mrs. Ralph Crews of New York and Thomas P. Bradford and his daughter, Isabel, of Springfield, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Jenison left for northern Wisconsin where they will spend several weeks. They will make their home in Oak Park.
