ROSALIE CLAIRE KILLED

Miss Rosalie Claire, one of the principals in the musical comedy "Sunny Days," now playing at the Four Cohans theater, was killed Sunday morning in an automobile accident in Chicago. Miss Claire had been on the stage only four years but had made a rapid rise to stardom during that time. Her place will be taken by Emily Lockwood, formerly of the vaudeville team of Leavitt and Lockwood.

Beery and Hatton Come to Varsity Early Next Week

"The whirlwind affairs of a high powered business man who favored blonde saleswomen" is the way the advertiser describes the picture to be shown at the Varsity theater this Saturday. After a long lapse of time Bryant Washburn continues the adventures of the movie-Skinner, and comes to the Varsity with Martha Sleeper and Hugh Trevor in "Skinner's Big Idea."

On Monday and Tuesday of next week the famous Wallace Beery-Raymond Hatton combination will entertain at the Varsity in "Partners in Crime." The two inseparable partners of the army, navy and air service dive into the underworld to dig up some new laughs and thrills. Beery is a detective who discovers more by accident than a Scotland Yard man could by design. Hatton plays the double role of reporter and gang leader who are constantly mistaken for one another.

In "The Beloved Rogue," to be shown at the Varsity next Wednesday, John Barrymore plays his role of a vagabond—loving, fighting, roving—as only John Barrymore could play it.

Illinois has erected monuments on Civil War battlefields at Vicksburg, Shiloh, Gettysburg, Kenesaw Mountain and Chickamauga.
