

Panthers Enjoy Romp in the Woods

Though the youngsters depicted above bear the rather sinister sobriquet of "panthers," they are really very fine and typical examples of American boyhood. This group, constituting one of the many activities at Community House, is under the direction of R. H. "Bud" Fairclough, who at frequent intervals takes his charges on trips into the wide-open spaces for a good romp. One of these expeditions to Deer Grove in the Forest Preserves was responsible for the above picture. The boys are all but hiding from view a motor truck, the services of which were contributed for the purpose of the drive to Deer Grove by Murray and Sinclair, a well-known Winnetka real estate and building firm.
