Goes to Harvard

Frank Watt, II, who graduated from New Trier High school this June, will enter Harvard university next fall. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Watt of 338 Melrose avenue, Kenilworth. When Mr. Watt was thirteen years old he won the honor of Eagle Scout, being the first Kenilworth Scout to achieve that distinction. He was president of his class when he graduated from the Joseph Sears school of Kenilworth in 1924. This last year, when he graduated from New Trier High school, Mr. Watt was president of the senior class.

Arrange for Camps Now

"Boys desiring to take advantage of these camping privileges should consult their Scoutmaster, or if he is away, should see or telephone Walter McPeck, Scout executive, 16 North Sheridan road, Highland Park.

"The formation of a Central Winnetka Scout committee to have general charge of Scout functions in Winnetka, and to represent Winnetka in the North Shore area, will not be completed until September. The Winnetka group which has conducted the negotiations, consisted of: S. Bowles King, chairman, Clarence B. Randall, John N. VanderVries, Rev. R. Malcolm Ward, Eugene A. Rummier, Frederick A. dePeyster, Chester F. Sargent, Nathaniel H. Blatchford, and Sherman Aldrich.

Members of the North Shore area Executive board who attended the meeting at Community House, included: Karl D. King, president, Benjamin Cox, Allan Wolff, and Messrs. Casselberry, Steele, and McPeck.

Miss Frances Ellison, 919 Washington street, Evanston, who teaches at North Shore Country Day school in Winnetka, is attending the summer session at the University of Wisconsin at Madison.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Hamilton, 412 Walnut street, and their daughters, Helen and Katherine, returned on Sunday, June 24, from a month's stay in the mountains of North Carolina.
