Gertrude McBrady and Frederick Salmen Wed

A bridal gown of ivory satin, fashioned in simple straight lines with a court train was worn by Miss Gertrude McBrady, upon the occasion of her marriage to Frederick Salmen of Winnetka. She carried a bouquet of lilies. The nuptials were solemnized Saturday evening in the Lady chapel of St. Luke's church and were followed by a reception in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McBrady, of Evanston. Dr. George Craig Stewart read the service.

Attending the bride was her sister, Ruth, who was gowned in pink moire, and Mrs. Edward Capps, who wore a frock of pink chiffon. Both carried bouquets of pink peonies. The little flower girls, Jean McBrady and Frieda Salmen, were dressed in pink georgette frocks and carried miniature bouquets of garden flowers.

Adolph Salmen of Winnetka served as best man for his brother. John McBrady of Evanston ushered.

Mr. and Mrs. Salmen are motoring to Toronto for a fortnight's stay. They will make their home in Chicago upon their return.
