Esther Ralston Plays in Community House Picture

"Something Always Happens"—especially in a haunted house with musty stairs, sliding panels, walking chairs, etc. What actually does happen will be shown in this picture at the Community House next Tuesday, July 3. "Something Always Happens" is a delightful melodramatic farce, in which Neil Hamilton gives the eye-soothing Esther Ralston a lasting thrill and one which the audience will enjoy. William Boyd's charm triumphs over a dirty face in "The Night Flyer," which is a story of big doings among the railroaders. This picture is billed for the Community House next Friday, July 6. The movie is adapted from the story by Frank Hamilton Spearman. The cast includes, besides William Boyd, Jobyna Ralston, Philo McCullough, Ann Schaeffer, DeWitt Jennings, John Milerta, and Robert Dudley.

MARY WANTS TO GROW UP

And now America's sweetheart goes and does it. Mary Pickford, recently returned from a trip to Europe with her husband, Douglas Fairbanks, stops in Chicago enroute to the Pacific coast long enough to have some of her golden curls cut off. Mary says she wants to stop playing the little girl parts and to play the grown-up roles.

APPLAUSE FOR SOPHIE

Miss Sophie Tucker, well known in Chicago and elsewhere, continues to draw the applause in London, where, it is said, no issue of a daily or Sunday newspaper is seemingly regarded as complete unless her name be in it not fewer than six times.
