

Now Has
 A
Lyon & Healy
 Music Store

*When the Court Honored
 Patrick J. Healy*

"Shall we waive the oath in taking Mr. Healy's testimony?" commendably asked the judge of the attorneys, examining the jury panel. "Yes" was their immediate reply.

With the spirit of Patrick Joseph Healy to inspire it, this business cannot fail to grow. Another Branch Store opens tomorrow. A growing public soon learns that what we sell is good in quality, and reasonable in price.

Saturday, July 7, we come to be your neighbor in the Artcraft Building. No secret is it, that music and a love for all else that a great art inspires, abide in Evanston and her sister communities — Wilmette, Winnetka and Glencoe. Noted centers of culture, their interests and their tastes have invited the establishment in their midst, of a music store akin to their ideals. So Lyon & Healy brings to Davis Street the music shopping satisfaction of Lyon & Healy's in the Loop. Evanston and her neighbors will find here, that Lyon & Healy completeness, the quality, the service and the brand of satisfaction that, in the world of music, so distinguish Lyon & Healy's as a music store apart. We believe that you will welcome the idea of a Lyon & Healy's in Evanston. Here there will be almost "everything", if not "everything known in music", from small instruments, sheet music and radio, to the glorious Steinway itself.
