

Chicago Commons Group Entertained by Circle

(Contributed)

On Thursday, June 28, a group from Chicago Commons, consisting of thirty-six children, four mothers, and two workers, were guests of the Lincoln avenue circle for the day.

The day's program of lunch and games at Community House, rides in automobiles, and a dip in the lake, with ice cream served just before time to catch the train back to the city, rounded out a jolly, pleasant day for everyone.

The many expressions of appreciation and delight from mothers, workers, and some of the older children, more than repaid the committee in charge.

Those actively representing the circle were Mrs. Seymour Morris, Mrs. J. J. Cleary, Mrs. Roy L. Ary, Mrs. E. P. Snyder, Mrs. John Marshall, Mrs. E. H. Leslie, Mrs. David Lasier, Mrs. S. W. Boldenweck, and Mrs. David Bluford, while several other members, who could not be there to help, sent luncheons.

Mr. Wissman was bruised slightly about the head.

The cab, driven by George Burmeister, 21, of 452 Oakdale avenue,
