Soloists Announce Program for Sunday Musicales at Skokie

BY JEAN TEN BROECK

For a number of seasons the Sunday afternoon musicales at Skokie Country club always have proved a source of delight to club members and their friends who love good music and enjoy this late afternoon hour or more when one or two soloists, as the case may be, give, in the delightful setting Skokie provides, programs selected to fit the moods of a summer audience that drops in informally to relax under and be refreshed by the permeating strains of music sent out in beauty from these soloists, who are well chosen.

We are told that old English melodies will be sung by Mrs. Gilbert Smith, soprano, and by Mrs. Dennis Gent, contralto, on Sunday, July 8, at the first of the Skokie summer musicales, which, again this season, are given under the direction of Mrs. Dwight C.
