

Appoint Director of Religious Work for Northwestern

Appointment of Dr. James M. Yard, for many years an educator in West China, as director of religious activities at Northwestern university, was announced this week by President Walter Dill Scott. This will be the first time the university has had such a director. As an official representative of the university, Dr. Yard will act as liaison officer between the university and the churches, he will be an advisor to the various religious organizations on the campus, of which there are more than twelve, and he will serve as a personal counselor to the students, President Scott said.

Dr. Yard is a graduate of Wesleyan university and the Hartford Theological seminary. In 1909 he went to West China for the Methodist Episcopal church and organized the Chengtu community church, one of the first of its kind in China. He taught English, the Bible and Homiletics in the West China Union university of Chengtu, and lectured at the Y. M. C. A. and government schools on religious subjects. In 1922 he became executive secretary of Methodist centenary in China and editor of the China Christian Advocate. For the last three years he has been American secretary of the West China Union university.

Dr. Yard will begin his duties at Northwestern university with the opening of the fall term in September.

Touring Cars Collide In Winnetka; Girl Injured

Two touring cars driven by Lawrence Church, 610 Maple avenue, Wilmette, and Curtis Brown, 352 Jefferson avenue, Glencoe, collided at the corner of Asbury and Euclid avenues in Winnetka last Monday evening about 8:30 o'clock. Church's car, which was going south on Euclid, went 150 feet across a corner front yard before it stopped after the collision. Brown, who was going east on Asbury, stopped his car at the hedge along the sidewalk. Miss Vivian Kerr, 18, of Wilmette, one of the occupants, received a small cut on her right shoulder. There were no other injuries.
