

Tennis Activities

Indian Hill club held its Independence day tennis tournament, June 30 to July 4. Entries were made for boys and girls, women and junior girls, men and junior boys and doubles, including mixed doubles. The Final matches were played off the afternoon of July 4.

The Triangle tennis league between Indian Hill club, Skokie Country club and Winnetka Tennis club held its first matches Sunday. Indian Hill played Skokie. Barbara Holden, Helen Fulton, and Adalaide Ball; Francis Stanton and Hughes Dallas composed Indian Hill's team. Lucy Jane Hedberg, Mary Louise Morris, Bobby McMahon, Fowler Weede, and Conrad Daniels were on Skokie's team. Indian Hill defeated Skokie 3-2. The singles matches were, Lucy Jane Hedberg d. Barbara Holden, 6-1, 6-1. Helen Fulton d. Mary Louise Morris 6-4, 6-0. Francis Stanton d. Bob McMahon 3-6, 6-0, 6-2. Fowler Weede d. Hughes Dallas, 8-6, 3-6, 6-1. In mixed doubles A. Ball and F. Stanton d. L. J. Hedberg and C. Daniels, 6-2, 6-2.

On Sunday, Skokie will meet Winnetka. They will play at Skokie.

June 16 the Chicago Sectional Tennis tournament for juniors, boys and girls, opened. The north shore tennis center, part of the Chicago district net play for the young stars, sponsored by the Chicago Evening Post, was held at Skokie Country club.

Phil Brain, tennis professional at Skokie, ran off his tournament in fine shape.

The other divisions of the city were held at the Chicago Town and Tennis club, Hamilton club, Oak Park club and Gary. The winners of all the divisions will meet at the Hamilton club

Saturday and Sunday, July 7 and 8, for the Chicago city championships. Prizes will be awarded the winners by the Chicago Evening Post and medals are to be awarded by the United Lawn Tennis association. Semi-finalists and finalists in all the sectional meets automatically qualify for the nationals to be played at Culver in August.

The North Shore sectional had far more girls turn out than did any of the other sections. The field was good and although Barbara Holden and Lucy Jane Hedberg stood out as the probable finalists the field was good for upsets.

In the final match Lucy Jane Hedberg defeated Barbara Holden in a hard fought match, 6-2, 6-4. In the junior boys, Johnny Sheldon and Richard Hammond were the favorites. The final match was to be played off on Tuesday. In the boys' section Billy Clover won the tournament. Following are the results of the matches:

Girls' semi-finals—Barbara Holden d. Eugenie Sampson, 6-4, 8-10, 9-7; Lucy Jane Hedberg d. Helen Fulton, 6-2, 6-1; Finals—Lucy Jane Hedberg d. Barbara Holden, 6-2, 6-4; Junior boys' semi-finals—Johnny Sheldon defeated Bobby McMahon, 6-2, 6-3; Richard Hammond defeated Lindsey Beaton; Finals—Johnny Sheldon vs. Richard Hammond.
