Paradise for Girl Campers

This is the kind of scenery that the thirty-three girls who left Winnetka last Monday with Mrs. Eloise W. Wortley and five other counselors are enjoying at "Chief" Davies' summer camp at Hamlin Lake, near Ludington, Mich. The picture shows a small river which empties into the lake. Each year the girls who go to the camp take an all-day canoe trip up the little river which is bordered by many trees and thick brush. The trip is not too swift to make canoeing dangerous, and the girls have great fun on the annual trip. They take their lunches and spend the entire day in the open. Word reaching here from the camp states that the girls arrived on Tuesday morning in time for breakfast. The weather has been favorable this week and the group of thirty-three is taking advantage of it. The twenty-three week and the group of thirty camp two weeks before the girls left, returned home last Saturday.
