

Vista del Lago to Dedicate New Fiesta Ballroom

Tuesday, July 17, will witness the inauguration of a three-day celebration marking the dedication of Club Vista del Lago's new Fiesta ballroom and Galeria. With the completion of this $100,000 ballroom, Club Vista del Lago now embraces in structure the most colorful club facilities on the north shore, its sponsors declare.

Vista's opening, it is anticipated, will be one of those unusual affairs that attract the social life of the north shore suburbs, from Evanston to Lake Forest. Spanish troubadors, native señoritas, and unusual entertainment will augment the "Old World" illusion so carefully planned throughout the entire club building.

An unusual treat awaits members and guests at this Fiesta de Julio in the privilege to hear Miss Rubye McDaniel Bell of Kentucky, lyric soprano, those in charge of the dedication program announce. Miss Bell's natural dignity, charm and remarkable voice range have won for her national honors. Reception at 6:30, dinner at 8, Cope Harvey's orchestra, entertainment, favors—there, in a word, is the program.

Louis C. Simmel, executive secretary of Club Vista del Lago, announces the following club staff appointments. David Franklin, membership secretary; Ralph Baker, manager; C. J. Braun, assistant manager.

Interior decorations were under the direction of Mrs. Howard Linn of Au Paradise Inc.

MARRIED

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Teske, formerly of Winnetka, now of Milwaukee, announce the marriage of their daughter, Genevieve, to Arthur E. Meyers, athletic instructor in the Washington High school in Milwaukee, Saturday, June 30. Mrs. Meyers was a former student at New Trier. She and her husband have gone to the north woods, to remain until September 1, when they will be at home at 1112 Fifty Third street, Milwaukee.

VISIT AT GOODWIN HOME

Mrs. John Sherman Custer, of Lawrenceville, N. J., sister of the Rev. Thomas A. Goodwin, and her young son, Edwin, are visiting at the Goodwin home for a few weeks.

Mrs. Monte Goldstein and children, of New York, are arriving on August 1, to be the guests of Mrs. Eugene D. Sax. On August 3 Mrs. Sax and Mrs. Hugo Hartmann will give a large luncheon and bridge in Mrs. Goldstein's honor at the home of Mrs. Hartmann, 755 Lincoln avenue.

MARRIES ON JULY 11

Mrs. Alvina Ulbricht of 883 Willow road announces the marriage of her daughter, Julia Martha, to Richard D. Douglass, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Douglass of St. Louis, Mo., on July 11, in Winnetka. Mr. and Mrs. Douglass are leaving soon for Houston, Tex., where Mr. Douglass is in business. Miss Verna Iverson of 1015 Willow road recently entertained twenty young women at a shower in honor of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. James Beardslee of 560 Elm street have returned from a delightful motor trip of ten days through the northern woods. They are staying at the Kenilworth Inn until the latter part of August.
