

Summer Lull Now Settling Over North Shore Society

Women Golfers Find July Month of Rest on Club Schedules

BY JEAN TEN BROECK

A quiescent spell hovers over social life on the north shore at present and what activity there seems to be emanates from the usual summer sources, golf clubs, Ravinia opera, and beach and yacht clubs. This week we turn to the first of these to glean what we can of golf plans for women members, as this is one phase of country club life that weekly attracts feminine players who come for their game of golf, following, for a day, a white ball, small in size but with such a big influence on one's disposition, or, concluding a morning's exercise with luncheon and an informal game of bridge in the afternoon.

The long quoted phrase about mice, men and their plans, has held true this summer, and we find, as we inquire along the shore for golf news, that the disarranging factors have been first the rain, and then the heat.

July seems to be somewhat of a recess month coming between the first opening events of the season and the larger matches arranged for August.

Next Tuesday will be guest day at the North Shore Golf club where the last of the June tournament is being completed and the July match is underway. Flag day was the event Tuesday of this week. Every fortnight an approaching and putting contest is held which is continued throughout the season. The August calendar is to include several important events.

Westmoreland club makes a special place in its summer golf arrangements for juniors. Each Thursday is given over to these girls who have their morning lesson followed by nine hole matches. The round robin tournament for women is now in sway and Friday of last week brought regular Guest day. The June tournament was completed at Westmoreland with Mrs. William Drexmit of Chicago winner of the first flight, and Mrs. Walter Vanlandingham of Wilmette, winner of the second.

Tuesday, July 24, has been set aside on the Wilmette Golf club schedule of events for a costume party, which will be, as are the other weekly events for women, an all-day affair. Mrs. Tom Hughes was the winner of the June trophy, with Mrs. Frank Douglas runner-up.

At Indian Hill a member and guest tournament will be held next Wednesday and the last week in July the match will be decided on the best score on 18 holes and one-half handicap. A flag tournament was the event Wednesday, and on July 12, the mixed foursome match was followed by supper at the club.

July at Sunset Ridge is marked by the monthly tournament. There will be match play every Tuesday. A mixed foursome match on Sunday, July 22, will be a special event and on July 24, the women members will have their Guest day.

Friday, July 13, is Black Cat day at Skokie, and July 27 will be the annual Skokie Guest day with luncheon at noon.

Two mixed foursome events are on the July calendar with supper following in both instances. The first of these affairs was last Thursday and the other is to come later in the month.

Late June Bride

Photo by Koehne

Before her marriage, Saturday, June 30, which was one of the large society weddings of the season, Mrs. Albert Keep was Miss Isabel Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Scott of Hubbard Woods. After returning from their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Keep will go to Charlevoix for the remainder of the summer and in September they will take up residence in Sheffield, Mass.

Eloise Arms Is to Marry Norman Clark August 11

One of the brides of midsummer is to be Miss Eloise Elizabeth Arms, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert C. Arms, formerly of Wilmette, and now of Evanston. Her marriage to Norman Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Clark of Evanston, is to take place Saturday evening, August 11. Both the 8:30 o'clock ceremony and the reception following will take place at the Evanston Country club.

The members of the wedding party have been chosen. A cousin of Miss Arms, Mrs. Charles Hood of Detroit, will be matron of honor. Mrs. Alvin Bowe of Minneapolis (Marion Mannerud), and Miss Elizabeth Pond, Miss Kathryn Merrill and Miss Virginia Davis, of Evanston, will be bridesmaids.

Warren Clark of Milwaukee, brother of the bridegroom-elect, will act as best man, and Armin Kuehmsted of Hinsdale, Charles Hood of Wilmette, John Keelin of Chicago, and James Snyder of Kenilworth will serve as ushers.

Already one affair has been given in honor of Miss Arms. Friday of last week Mrs. Ransom Sherman of Winnetka was hostess at a luncheon and miscellaneous shower.

At Sunset Ridge

Sunset Ridge has two social events on its mid-July calendar. This evening is the occasion of a Saturday dinner dance and tomorrow a buffet supper will be served. The women's bridge luncheon was held Friday of this week, but hereafter will take place on Wednesdays, as usual.

Mrs. I. B. Connor of 1151 Hampton-dale road entertained Wednesday afternoon at luncheon and bridge for Mrs. Tilden Hoskins who is visiting her sister, Mrs. John McKeown of Chicago.

July 27 Is Annual Picnic Day at Arden Shore Camp

The annual Arden Shore picnic day has been set for Friday, July 27. It is a day to which the public is invited, for it offers an opportunity to friends of the camp to see for themselves, as well as to hear of, the work done during the summer encampment period. Visitors are asked to take their own box lunches and coffee is served at the camp.

During the luncheon hour in a large screened cottage, those in charge tell of the work done and in the afternoon the guests see an entertainment given by members of the camp demonstrating the activity among children.

One of the aims of the Arden Shore association is to develop native talent among the campers and recently a delightful dance was given by a young Italian woman who went through the intricate steps with a pitcher of water on her head.

Another interesting bit of Arden Shore life this season is in the Siddall cottage for elderly women, where are ensconced three grandmothers, one German, one Italian, and one Irish, whose love for the country of their birth brings about a strong international feeling which is overpowered by their loyalty to America, their country by adoption.

Entertain Park Ridge Girls at Ravinia

The Ravinia Opera committee of Winnetka and Hubbard Woods entertained forty girls from the Park Ridge school, July 5, at Ravinia. The girls and two teachers were called for in cars, and at Ravinia they were served a picnic lunch.

The women who drove cars were: Mrs. Chester Sargent, Mrs. Roland Whitman, Mrs. George Parker, Mrs. William Truesdale, Mrs. Devroe Getman, Mrs. John Desmond, Mrs. Charles Burkhardt and Mrs. J. Williams Macy. Mrs. George Parker was in charge of the drivers.

The special committee arranging the entertainment included Mrs. Macy, Mrs. Hamilton Daughaday, Mrs. Edgar Baumann, and Mrs. Ralph M. Jaeger.

Winnetkans to Give Tea for the F. Roger Millers

Mr. and Mrs. John N. Vander Vries of 968 Pine street will entertain at tea Sunday for a number of those in attendance at the National School for Commercial and Trade Executives which is holding its eighth annual session at Northwestern university.

The tea is given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. F. Roger Miller of Asheville, N. C. Mr. Miller is president of the board of managers and Mr. Vander Vries is secretary and treasurer. Mrs. Miller, whose pen name is Helen Topping Miller, is a writer of short stories depicting southern life.

Wellesley Picnic July 20

The North Shore Wellesley circle and the Chicago Wellesley club will have their annual picnic Friday, July 20, at 12:30 o'clock, at "Birken Craig," the home of Mrs. Bruce MacLeish, 85 Wentworth avenue, Glencoe. Members are asked to bring their bathing suits and their own box lunches. Coffee will be served.

Mrs. Bert C. Hardenbrook of 642 Maple street entertained at luncheon at Skokie Wednesday, in honor of Mrs. W. R. Willett of Louisville, Ky., who is the house guest of Mrs. Henry Wales.

"The Red Cabin" Is Scene of Wedding of Winnetka Girl

"The Red Cabin," the charming summer home of the Hugo von Hofstens of Winnetka at Leland, Mich., was the delightful setting for the marriage of Miss Frances von Hofsten and Kenneth Price on July 7. About one hundred guests attended the 4 o'clock ceremony and the supper following.

The bridal procession formed at the rear of the cabin and proceeded through the pines and evergreens to the edge of Lake Leelanau where Dr. J. W. F. Davies read the service.

The ivory satin wedding gown of her mother was worn by the bride and a cap of lace held the tulle veil in place. The maid and matron of honor, Miss Louise von Hofsten and Mrs. Lawrence Norem (Carolyn Case) were dressed in frocks of lavender chiffon and the bridesmaids, Mrs. Richard Buck, Jr., of Columbus, Mrs. George Northrup Simpson and Miss Anne Smith, of Chicago, were in dresses of yellow chiffon. They all carried arm bouquets of gladioli and larkspur.

Tyler G. Price served as best man for his brother, and the ushers were Herbert Sieck, Lawrence Norem, George Northrup Simpson, Jr., of Chicago, Richard Buck, Jr., of Columbus, and Elmer Wieboldt of Glencoe. Mr. and Mrs. Price left immediately after the wedding for a week's stay at Mackinac Island, after which they will return to "The Red Cabin" for the remainder of the summer. They will reside in Kansas City.

The last two affairs given prior to the wedding took place in Leland. Miss Eleanor Gould of Chicago entertained the bridal party at a buffet supper the evening of July 6 on the lawn of the Gould summer home on a bluff overlooking Lake Michigan, and Mrs. George Simpson was hostess at a luncheon for the wedding party the day of the ceremony.

Circle News

The members of the Foxdale circle entertained on Tuesday July 10, about forty children from Chicago Commons. The children were met at the depot and driven to the park where a hearty lunch was provided. Since the day was very warm most of the afternoon was spent in swimming. Before leaving, ice cream was served and cracker jack and candy distributed. All appeared to have thoroughly enjoyed the day.

The following members of the circle assisted: Mrs. Roger Ballard, Mrs. M. E. Snider, Mrs. J. G. Seyfried, Mrs. Harold Spink, Mrs. A. J. Eiden, Mrs. Ralph Morphet, Mrs. O. H. Miller and Miss Miller.

The meeting of the Oak Street circle which was to have been held last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles S. Jewell, was indefinitely postponed.

Garden Tea Today

Mrs. Gordon Pirie of 945 Sheridan road has issued cards for a tea from 4 to 7 o'clock this afternoon. The affair will be a housewarming, and the tea tables will be set on the terrace.

Mrs. Raymond Doonan and Mrs. Ward Pearl, of Winnetka, were hostesses to twenty friends at Sunset Ridge yesterday. In the morning their guests played golf, were then entertained at luncheon and had a game of bridge in the afternoon.