Varsity Announces Pictures for Week Starting Saturday

Motion pictures to be shown at the Varsity during the coming week include "The Magnificent Flirt," "His Tiger Lady," and "Diamond Handcuffs."

"The Magnificent Flirt" is the first of the offerings. It is a picture in which Florence Vidor plays a game of wits, and it will be shown at the Varsity this Saturday, July 14.

Adolphe Menjou and Evelyn Brent play the principal roles in "His Tiger Lady," coming to the Varsity next Monday and Tuesday. Others in the cast are Rose Dione, Emil Chautard, Mario Carillio, Leonardo de Vesa, and Jules Bancourt. The locale of the picture is Paris and the story is of a stage "super" who, gorgeous in a rajah's costume, falls in love with a duchess. The duchess comes night after night to see, not the play, but one act in which a man enters a tiger's cave. The lady, you learn, worships bravery. The "rajah" meets the duchess and the duchess falls for the "rajah."

"Diamond Handcuffs," which will be shown at the Varsity next Wednesday and Thursday, is a swift drama of greedy men and lovely women. It is a cruel story. A diamond is the menace—a horrible, devastating menace which brings unhappiness and death to those who covet its possession. The picture is done in three episodes. Eleanor Boardman, Conrad Nagel, Gwen Lee, Lawrence Gray, and Lena Malena are the actors and actresses.

German War Picture to Be Shown at Playhouse

For the first time, Chicagoans will have an opportunity to see a motion picture account of "Germany's Side of the War," the title of the picture which will have its premiere and only showing in Chicago at the Playhouse theater beginning Sunday, July 15. This film is the first authentic, unbiased account of the hardships, the adversities, and the forlorn hopes of Germany.

Battles on all the fronts are shown and among them, the battle of Warsaw where millions of Russian soldiers were defeated. It is generally conceded by those who have followed the motion pictures of the war, that this is the most thrilling, complete, and convincing picturization of a battle ever recorded by the camera. The result of this battle was instrumental in bringing about the overthrow of the Czar and his government. One reel is also devoted to the portrayal of the maneuvers of Germany's most dramatic under-sea craft, the "U-35."

Jack and Jill Players Perform at Drake Hotel

The Jack and Jill Players are presenting "Mercadet," a comedy in three acts by Balzac, at the Jack and Jill theatre in the Drake hotel, Chicago, this week and the early part of next week. Three performances have already been given and three more are scheduled, one each on the evenings of July 14, 15, and 18 at 8:30 o'clock. The players are under the direction of Marie Agnes Foley.

Another three act comedy, "The Ladies' Battle," by Scribe and Legouve, will be presented on the evenings of July 21, 22, 25, 28, 29, and August 1.

Twenty-One States Send Entries for N. U. Coach School

Twenty-one states are represented in the entries already received for the Coaching school, to be conducted by Northwestern university Aug. 13 to 25. High school and college coaches from all over the country are being attracted to the two-weeks session, which has a number of the outstanding football mentors on the staff.

Courses in football, basketball, track and athletic administration are to be offered. Dick Hanley, head football coach at Northwestern, will have charge of the football course. Supplementary lectures will be given by such well-known grid experts as Jess Hawley, head football coach at Dartmouth; Arnold Horween, head football coach at Harvard; Judge Walter Steffen, head football coach at Carnegie Tech, and Duke Dunne, line coach at Harvard.

Coach Arthur Lonborg, Northwestern's new basketball mentor, whose team won nine out of twelve conference games last season, will conduct the course in basketball. Coach Lonborg is a product of the Kansas school of basketball and he has had unusual success in previous coaching situations in that state. In seven years of coaching his teams have won 84 and lost 14 games.

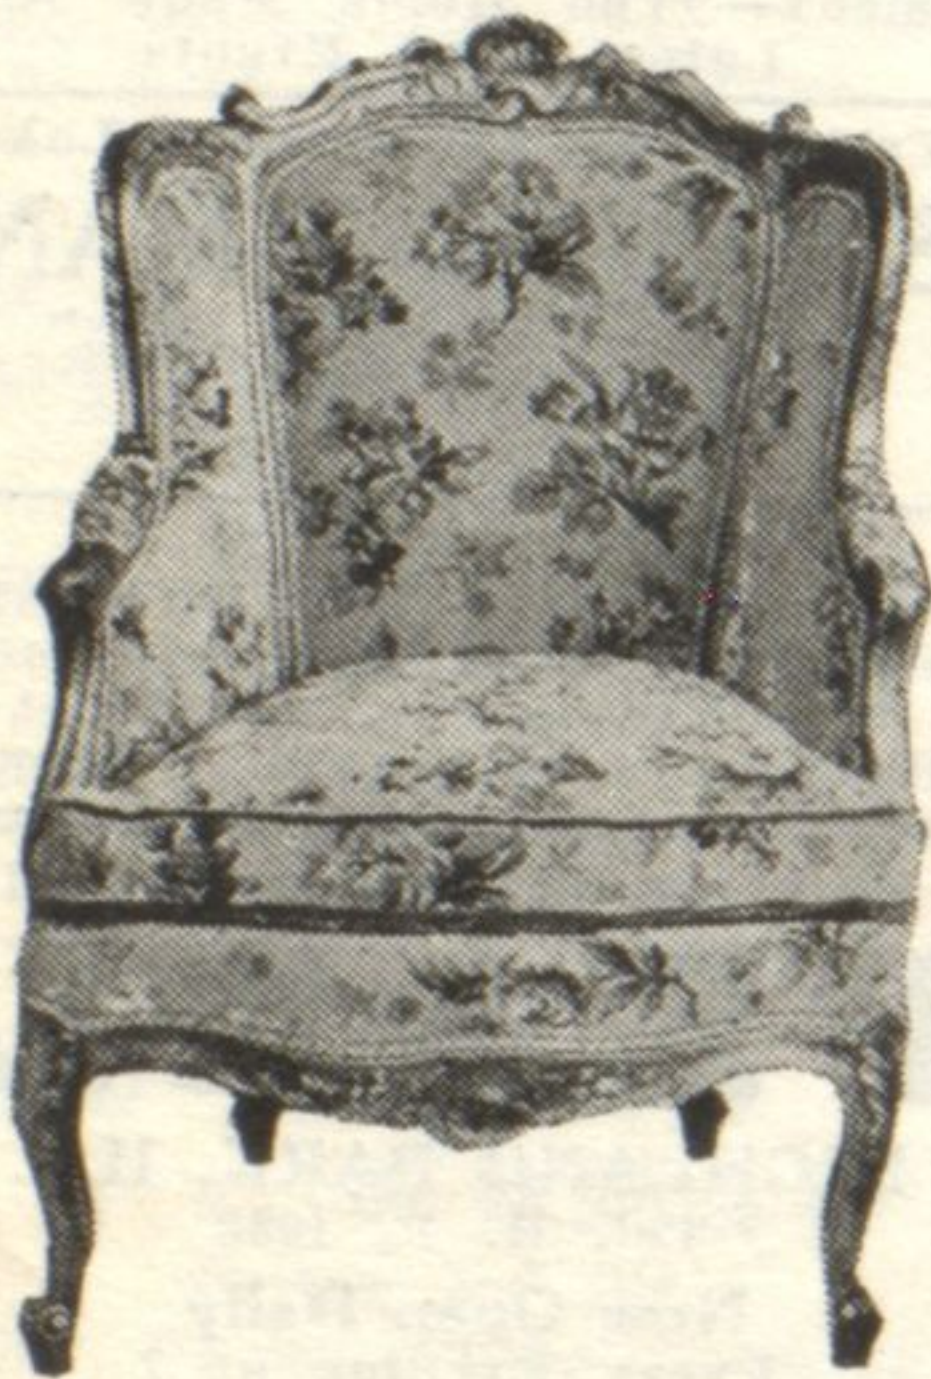

Frank Hill, head track coach at Northwestern, who has turned out many champions in his career, will have charge of the track classes. He is at present in Europe, where he is to attend the Olympic games. He will bring back fresh impressions of that great track classic. K. L. Wilson, athletic director at Northwestern, is also attending the games and will return to give his popular course in Athletic Administration.

CLERK ON VACATION

John Gukeisen, clerk at the Kenilworth postoffice, began his annual vacation last Monday.

Ruth Elder, who tried to do what Amelia Earhart did, will play opposite Richard Dix in the latter's new starring picture, "Moran of the Marines." This picture is from an original screen story by Linton Wells, newspaper man and aviator.
