Mrs. Donald McPherson Plans Visits in East

Mrs. Donald McPherson is leaving next week with the baby for Pittsfield, Mass., where she will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick West. Leaving the baby with her mother, Mrs. McPherson will make various short trips in the New England states, visiting friends on the Cape and her son, Donald, who is at Camp Bonnie Dune there. She will go to Vermont to see her daughter, Fannie, who also is enjoying a season of camping at Brattleboro. Mrs. McPherson and the children will all come home about September 10. Fannie will be here but a few weeks when she will return to the east as she is to enter Miss Hall's school in Pittsfield this fall.

RETURNS TO HOME IN FRANCE

Mme. Robert Dupeyre of La Fronche, France, the former Harriet R. Nichols, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Edgar Stanton of 30 Locust road, for the past month, left Saturday, July 14, for New York, to sail this week-end for Paris. This was Mme. Dupeyre's first visit here since her marriage and a number of parties and dances were given in her honor. She lives in the Dupeyre "Villa Charmonnier" at La Fronche.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Weston, 1139 Oakley avenue, and their children, Betty, Jane, and Kay, returned this week from Athelstane, Wis., where they spent three weeks at the Wausaukee club.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Klotz and daughter, Catherine, of 88 Hill road, are spending the summer in Pasadena.

Miss Eleanor Dennehy is spending the week-end at a houseparty at Harvest Point, near Charlevoix, Mich.

Announce Dates for More Circle Picnics

The Oak street Circle, with Mrs. Francis W. Duncan in charge, will give a picnic next Tuesday for 30 boys from the Chicago Commons. This is the first picnic arranged for the boys. It will be at the beach, if the weather permits, otherwise, at Community House.

On Wednesday, the Skokie Circle, with Mrs. John J. Desmond in charge, will give a picnic for 50 girls.

This will be the last picnic until the last week in August, at which time Miss Mary Williams, secretary to "Chief" Davies, will have returned from her trip abroad, and when the Community House staff picnic will be given for 50 boys.

Miss Antoinette Brown returned last Monday from abroad where she had been in school in Geneva during the past year. She and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bowen Brown, 806 Rosewood avenue, and their family left yesterday for their camp at Pointe Au Baril in Canada, where they will remain until September 1.

Mrs. Ernest J. Brasseur, 333 Sheridan road, with Mrs. U. G. Hinman and Miss Martha Moe, gave a luncheon and card party Monday at Miss Moe's home in Evanston.
