"We Americans" Is on Teatro del Lago Schedule for Week

Arthur Lake and Barbara Kent, Universal's two popular junior stars, will be seen together for the first time in the farcical comedy, "Stop That Man," which will be shown at the Teatro del Lago this Saturday, July 21. This is a story of youth's desire to grow up in order to accomplish something in the world. The spirit of youth pervades the picture.

Another picture to be shown on the same bill is "A Thief in the Dark," a mystery circus picture which concerns the activities of a gang of side-show crooks and their attempts to steal a fortune in jewels from an eccentric old recluse and his pretty granddaughter. The all-star cast is headed by George Meeker, of "Four Sons," and Doris Hill.

"Harold Teen," coming to the Teatro del Lago this Sunday, July 22, is Harold of the comic strip come to life on the screen. It is a rollicking and hilarious farce of high school activities in a small town with a great cast of funsters. Arthur Lake walks away with honors as Harold. Mary Brian, as Lillums; Lucien Littlefield, as Grandpap, and Alice White, as the dizzy blonde, rank as close seconds.

In "The Drag Net," George Bancroft's latest starring vehicle for Paramount, which opens Monday at the Teatro del Lago for two days, the theme of the story is featured by new treatment of the underworld melodramatic plot. Two-Gun Nolan (George Bancroft), far famed shot, is police captain of the town's toughest district. His immediate problem is Trent, murderer and arch gangster. No one on the force but a young detective has ever found Trent's hang-out; he is murdered, and from that point, gang mass-movement contrasts effectively with Nolan's efforts to avenge the boy.

Three complete casts of film celebrities in a single picture is the departure from ordinary film drama in "Diamond Handcuffs," gripping drama of love, diamonds and the underworld, which comes to the Teatro del Lago next Wednesday, July 25. Eleanor Boardman, Lawrence Gray, Conrad Nagel, Gwen Lee, and Lena Malena are among the principals appearing in the casts.

Evelyn Brent, beautiful brunette actress, appears in the chief supporting role to Adolphe Menjou in that star's latest production entitled "His Tiger Lady," to be shown at the Teatro del Lago next Thursday. It is the story of a real love affair between a rich woman and a 'super' of the stage.

"We Americans," Teatro attraction for next Friday, is not a racial picture, but a drama of American immigrants. A Russian, a German, and an Italian family came to America fifteen years before the war. Their struggles for an existence, their loyalty, and their perplexities (particularly over the younger generation who find it so easy to assimilate American ideas and customs), make a story of absorbing interest. George Sidney plays the leading role.

Gloria Swanson's new picture is now called "Queen Kelly," instead of "The Swamp." And Edmund Lowe is to have the male lead, we are told.

"Chinatown Charlie" Is on Community House Bill

Johnny Hines will be seen in "Chinatown Charlie," one of his best productions, at the Community House next Tuesday, July 24. The picture is full of gags and laughs, and is refreshingly free from the usual comedy formula. Good melodrama, a few thrills, colorful backgrounds and a splendid supporting cast will appeal to theater goers. A scenic picture, "Mountains of Glacier Park," will also be shown at the Community House next Tuesday.

"The Patsy," with Marion Davies and Lawrence Grey is the Community House attraction for Friday of next week. Miss Davies gives an exquisite portrayal of Patsy. Her impersonations of Pola Negri, Lillian Gish, and Mae Murray are captivating. Director King Vidor has made a fine balance of comedy and drama in this picture. "An 'ugly duckling' story, but 'clean and amusing'" says one critic.

Clara Bow is planning to make a two months' tour of Yellowstone National park, the Grand Canyon, and Zion National park after she has completed "The Fleet's In."

"SUNNY DAYS" ENDS RUN

"Sunny Days," one of the two musical comedies now showing in the loop, is to be taken away from the Four Cohans next week. The "Greenwich Village Follies," fresh from a run at the New York Winter Garden, will open at the Four Cohans on Sunday, July 29. Included in personnel of the "Greenwich Village Follies" this season are: Miss Grace LaRue, Miss Evelyn Law, Doctor Rockwell, Miss Blossom Seeley, and her team-mate, Benny Fields. Accounts of Doctor Rockwell's activities in the new G. V. F. state that he is a wow.

Doris Kenyon has signed a contract with Famous Players-Lasky to play the part of the wife in "The Crime of Interference." Evelyn Brent plays the other woman, Clive Brook, the doctor husband, and William Powell, the first husband.
