Auto Collision Injures Three Chicago Persons

Three persons were injured in an automobile accident at Pine and Maple avenues, Winnetka, Monday afternoon at 5:30, when one of the cars, driven by Mrs. Sarah Burr of 7621 North Mansfield avenue, Chicago, was turned over on its left side. The car which hit it was owned by Hulda Iverson and driven by Mrs. D. C. Korsgren, of 384 Provident avenue, Winnetka.

Mrs. Burr sustained a fracture of the left collar bone and was cut on the left wrist. Mr. Burr suffered what it was feared were internal injuries and Sarah Burr was cut on the forehead and left ankle. The injured were taken to the office of Dr. Jay M. Garner, 545 Lincoln avenue, according to the report of Officers Frank Rayburn and Charles M. Bemus.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lay, 1408 Edgewood lane, had as their guest over the week-end, Miss Marguerite Ray of Chicago. Sunday evening Miss Janet and Miss Catherine Lay gave a supper party in Miss Ray's honor on the Glencoe beach.

Mrs. L. E. Warner, who has been working in the office at New Trier High school during the last year, has left for a month's trip to California, the Pacific Northwest, and Canada. She will return to New Trier in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Noble Golding of 1095 Pine street announce the birth of a son, John Gardner, on July 24, at the Evanston hospital.

William Reed of Arkansas is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Albert S. Gardner in their home at 745 Ash street for ten days.

Prominent Racers to Be Entered in Outboard Regatta

Chicago will have its first outboard regatta on the Edgewater Beach hotel mile and a half course on Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. All of the prominent outboard racers of this section will participate in the events which will be held under the auspices of the North Shore Outboard Motor club of Evanston. Many handsome trophies have been donated by the Edgewater Beach hotel for the class B, C, free-for-all, and displacement.

Among the entrants are: Mary Alcott Richardson, 15-year-old school girl, recent winner of the Milwaukee-Chicago outboard marathon race; Howard E. Richardson, winner in class C at the national regatta at St. Louis on July 4; Malcolm Pope, Florida champion, and holder of a new world's record made at Oshkosh, Wis., on July 15; Ben Coler, champion of Indiana with his famous boat, "Good Booze"; Franklin Cook of Evanston, winner of B class Milwaukee-Chicago race on June 2; Charles MacDonald, former 151 class racer driving "Skippy"; Jack Bersonette in "Oh Henry"; Chuck Davis, driver of Frank Hough's "Stetson Girl"; and Walter Peacock, Jr., of Wilmette, in "Hurry Up."

National officials of the American Outboard Motor association will officiate at the races. Dick Pope, national vice-commodore, will handle the starting flag. Captain Anderson of the United States Coast Guard, stationed at the mouth of the Chicago river, will have coast guard boats patrolling the course.

Miss Evelyn Johnson, of the New Trier High school office, has been visiting at Sycamore, Ill.
