

Lee Says:—

WHILE we are erecting
 MONUMENTS to our
 GREAT national heroes
 LET'S not forget the
 FELLOW who invented
 ICE cream because he GAVE to this hot
 OLD world of our a
 COOLING nectar that
 SIMPLY couldn't be REPLACED, so while
 YOU are plying the
 PALM leaf today and
 MOPPING perspiration
 JUST remember that
 OUR fountain is here
 AT your service with
 JUST about a thousand
 ANTIDOTES for that
 SWELTERING feeling and
 IF the suggestion
 SOUNDS good to you
 JUST phone friend
 HUSBAND to stop here
 ON his way home this
 EVENING and bring along
 SOME of that Luick
 ICE cream—it will make
 A HIT with the entire FAMILY.

SUNDAY SERMON TOPIC

The sermon at Winnetka Congregational church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock will be by Rev. Thomas A. Goodwin, who announces as his topic, "If You Want to Serve God."

Marton Weisner, 943 Oak street, left last Saturday to spend five weeks at Miller's camp near Duluth, Minn. Jack Worthington, 854 Cherry street, went with him.

Miss Eva Wilson returned to Winnetka last week from a three weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. M. W. Hand, who lives in Adrien, Mich.

Mrs. T. McCarthy and Mrs. J. M. Shadd of Rock Island spent several days with Mrs. B. A. Nelson, 607 Provident avenue, recently.

Miss Elizabeth Eckert of Reading, Pa., is returning from Minneapolis this week-end again to visit Miss Elinor Dennehy of 1231 Tower road.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip T. Mallen, 920 Pine street, are enjoying a two weeks' motor trip through northern Wisconsin and Minnesota.

Howard Savage, Legion Commander, Is Promoted

Howard P. Savage, past national commander of the American Legion and formerly assistant general manager of the Chicago North Shore and Milwaukee railroad, has assumed his duties as general manager of the Marigold motor coach lines comprising the Metropolitan system, with headquarters at 72 West Adams street, Chicago. He succeeds Fred A. Klock.

The appointment of Mr. Savage to this post comes after an extensive period of service in the electric railway transportation field. Following graduation from Lewis institute, Chicago, and a course of study at the University of Wisconsin, he entered the service of the Chicago Rapid Transit company in 1913 as a track foreman on the former Metropolitan West Side Elevated railroad.

He rose to the position of general superintendent maintenance of way, in which capacity he was serving when he answered the call to the colors during the World War.

Miss Jeanette Prentiss of Fort Worth, Texas is visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Prentiss of Kenilworth.
