EVANSTON

GLENVIEW DAY SEPT. 8, 9

Glenview Day will be celebrated this year September 8 and 9 and will be under the joint supervision of the Glenview Civic association and the village firemen. Plans for the celebration are being formulated by committees from the two organizations. The program will be similar to that of past years, except that it will be on a far larger scale, it is said.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Davis, Jr., have just returned from a trip East. They went by train to New York and Quebec, visiting Duxbury on Cape Cod. They returned by boat through the Great Lakes.

Speaks on Sugar

Sir James Colquhoun Irvine, principal and vice chancellor of the University of St. Andrews, Scotland, is taking a leading part in the American Chemical Society institute which opened Monday at Northwestern university. Sir James, a widely recognized authority on the chemistry of sugars, is giving a series of lectures on the influence of chemistry on modern civilization. He will lead the discussion tomorrow morning on the chemistry of cellulose and will next be heard from the lecture platform Wednesday evening at 8 in Harris hall.

Mrs. Seymour Morris, 801 Bryant avenue, has had Mrs. Thomas C. Craig of St. Louis as her house guest for a short time. Mrs. Craig is leaving this week-end.
