Will You Help to Send War Vets to Ball Game?

Disabled veterans at Great Lakes have been given passes to the Chicago baseball games, but the transportation has not been provided, Mrs. Joseph Joyce of Kenilworth, chairman of co-operation with war veterans of the Tenth Congressional district, announces. To readers of this publication Mrs. Joyce sends this plea: "Would any reader of this paper care to make up a purse to provide a bus to take these disabled war veterans to the ball games? If so, would he or she please notify either Mrs. Joyce, Kenilworth 2134, or Mrs. M. H. Finnegan, Red Cross worker in charge of arrangements at U. S Naval Psychopathic hospital, 105, Great Lakes. The cost of one bus to take the men to and from a game is $20, and the days now open for the games are August 14, 16, 20, 21, 22, 28, and 29."

Boy Scouts Invite Friends to Attend Woods Camp Fire

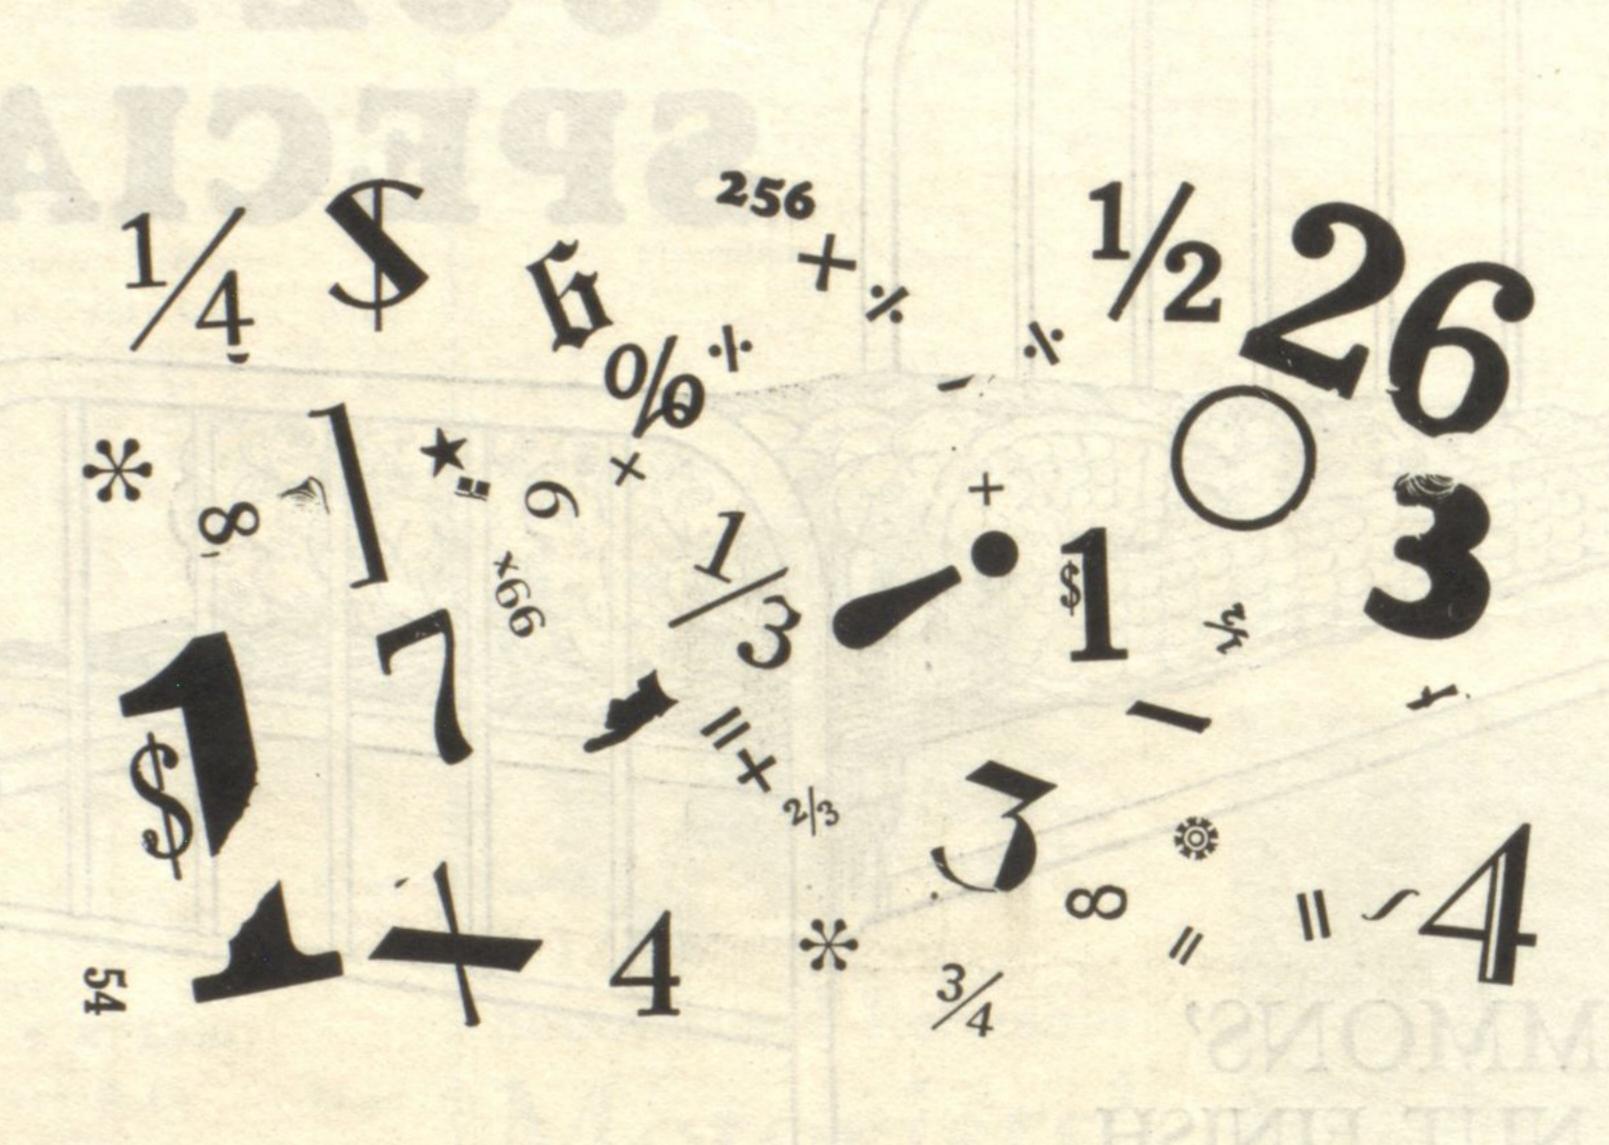

All Scout leaders, Scouts, parents, and friends have been invited by the north shore area of Boy Scouts to a big camp fire at 7:30 o'clock tonight at the cabin in the woods.

The Scouts will start the program with the camp fire lighting ceremony, and will follow it with community singing, yells, stunts, a cracker eating contest, songs by the Scouts, and end with a story by Mr. Kreusch, scoutmaster of Troop 9, Wilmette.

At 2 o'clock next Monday afternoon an area wide field meet, open to all the Scouts in the North Shore Area council, will be held at the cabin in the woods. To enter any of the contests, the Scout must be registered at Scout headquarters, be in good standing, and must enter himself in the event at the headquarters, 360 Central avenue, before July 27.

A big fun rally will be held at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, August 1, at the cabin in the woods. One of the outstanding events of the rally will be the wool-hunt. In the foolishness parade by the troops, each troop will dress as clowns in pajamas or any assortment of clothing. In the shoe scramble, two Scouts from each troop will put their shoes in piles. On the word to go, the runners will race to the pile, find their own shoes, put them on, lace them up, and return to the starting line.

These events will be under the direction of the North Shore Activities director, W. Ted Grant, who will be assisted by the troop leaders.
