The Week's News of the Screen and

Hoot Gibson Here to Make Picture at Chicago Rodeo

Blood-stirring contests of the West begin this Saturday, July 28, at Soldier Field, when the world's championship Chicago rodeo opens for nine days of cowboy and cowgirl title clashes. This rodeo will decide the champions at bucking bronk riding, steer wrestling, calf roping, relay racing, trick and fancy riding, trick roping and cowgirl bronk riding. Also there will be afternoon and night contests in wild horse races, steer riding and bareback bronk riding. Champions in all classes will defend their titles against the best top hand contenders of the West for purses totaling $33,000 together with the championship trophies.

Added to the thrill of these contests, rodeo spectators will see the making of a big feature motion picture. Hoot Gibson, well known western screen star, has chosen the Chicago rodeo as the setting of his newest photoplay. Hoot will film pictures of the actual contests and of the audiences, making the spectators part of the picture. This is the first chance Chicago audiences have had to see a feature film in the making and also to see themselves in the scenes.

The railroads are giving reduced rates to Chicago during the rodeo.

Griffith Makes New One

William Boyd and Lupe Velez have the leading roles in D. W. Griffith's next production, "The Love Song." Lowell Sherman is another recent addition to the cast, and Jetta Goudal is to play the role of a Parisian adventuress. "The Love Song" is an original story, written directly for the screen by Dr. Karl Vollmoeller, author of the book, "The Miracle." It is a tale of the Paris of Napoleon III.

The Marquis de la Falaise, Gloria Swanson's husband, who is to become a screen star himself, will be known as Henry Falaise.

SHOW SWANSON MOVIE

"Sadie Thompson" Is Announced on Alcyon Program for Next Week; "Sally of the Scandals" Today

The Alcyon theatre, in announcing its program for the week, places special emphasis on "Sadie Thompson," the picture to be shown at that theatre Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday of next week. This picture is based on the play "Rain" in which Jeanne Eagels scored a tremendous hit throughout the country, and is heralded as one of the supreme achievements of motion picture history.

Gloria Swanson, playing the part of "Sadie," gives herself to the characterization with a whole-heartedness that is remarkable. It is the outstanding success of her career.

Today's offering at the Alcyon is "Sally of the Scandals," with Bessie Love. It is not an unusual picture, but it is beautifully presented and sincerely acted. The heroine is a chorus girl with a little crippled sister to support. The producer of the show—a mighty nice chap as portrayed by Allan Forrest—is bowled over by her. The dirty work is furnished by the star of the piece who has been a favorite before the boss saw Sally, and by the vicious and jealous young man to whom Sally is engaged. The ending is all the most romantic heart could desire.

Esther Ralston Stars

"Half a Bride," starring Esther Ralston, will be shown at the Alcyon tomorrow. Gary Cooper is splendid as the man who refuses to be bowled over by Miss Esther's charms. He plays the part of Captain Edmunds who rescues the fiery Esther in a storm at sea after she has attempted to escape in a small boat. The occasion of her being on the sea is that her father was not satisfied with the man she wished to marry. It is a nice, romantic lightweight comedy drama.

Milton Sills, Doris Kenyon, Montagu Love, and Mitchell Lewis have the principal roles in "The Hawk's Nest," to be shown at the Alcyon next Thursday, August 2. Miss Kenyon, resplendent in a blonde wig, plays a sweet gutter flower. She seems to have a very good time. Mitchell Lewis as a pal, falsely accused, appears to be just that. "The Hawk's Nest" is a gang picture. Milton Sills plays the role of a mysterious owner of a gang joint called The Hawk's Nest. A murder and other things which one might expect in such a picture are very much in evidence.

Show Farce Comedy

"Skirts" is the title of a farce comedy in which Syd Chaplin will be seen at the Alcyon on Friday, August 3. The story is about a benedict and his pal who get into much confusion while their respective wives are away, and have a hard time getting out of it when the ladies return unexpectedly. A blonde and a cruel mother-in-law feature prominently in the proceedings.

Tax assessors of the District of Columbia estimate that the White House and the grounds surrounding it are worth about $22,000,000. Only two Federal properties, the Capitol, and the Treasury Department building, are valued at higher figures.
