

Trained in Citizenship

Summer time is playtime for boys at the Chicago Junior school situated amidst the hills of the Fox river near Elgin, where stately old trees and graceful slopes lend enchantment to the landscape. There, at their farm home, underprivileged boys ranging in years from 5 to 14 are part of a community life of their own that trains them in citizenship. It is to benefit such groups as the one pictured here that a benefit garden fete will be given at the home of Mrs. Minna Schmidt, 2715 Sheridan road, Evanston, on the afternoon and evening of August 2.

Juggling Fortunes

MANY INVESTORS are like jugglers. Their investments are turning over constantly as they seek to increase the yield here and obtain a profit there. Their securities are constantly in question or in danger.

Other investors select the safest investments and add something to the principal every month. They know that time and interest will do the rest.

We are glad to help you select safe bonds in which we have invested our own funds, and safe mortgages on good real estate.
