

150 Mentors Will Attend Classes at Coaching School

More than 150 high school and college coaches will attend the second annual summer coaching school to be conducted by Northwestern university here August 13 to 25. Coaches from twenty-three states will be in attendance at the school. Courses in football, basketball, track, swimming and athletic administration are being offered.

Coach Tom Robinson, Northwestern's famous swimming mentor, has been added to the staff. Originally he had planned to travel west on his vacation but will remain over for the school. Coach Robinson who has produced many Big Ten champions is recognized as the dean of swimming mentors in the middle west.

Hanley in Charge

Football will be in charge of Coach Dick Hanley, head football mentor at Northwestern. Supplementary lectures will be delivered by Arnold Horween, Harvard; Jess Hawley, Dartmouth; Walter Steffen, Carnegie Tech and Duke Dunne, Harvard. They will speak respectively on backfield play, forward pass, spin plays and line play.

Coach Arthur Lonborg who has just completed his first year of Big Ten basketball at Northwestern with a record of nine victories out of twelve conference games will give the course in basketball. Coach Lonborg, a former star at Kansas university, has an enviable record during his seven years of coaching, winning 84 out of 102 games.

Hill Heads Track Staff

Instruction in track will be given by Frank Hill, veteran track coach at Northwestern. Coach Hill is attending the Olympic games and will return in time for the school.

K. L. Wilson, athletic director at Northwestern, who is also attending the Olympic games will return to give his course in theory and organization of athletic departments.

Registration will start Monday morning, August 13, and classes will get underway that morning. Football lectures and field classes will be offered in the morning and the first period of the afternoon. Basketball and the other sports will be given in the afternoon.

Classes will be dismissed on both Saturday afternoons of the course to permit students to attend the baseball games at Cubs' park.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson of 38 Abbottsford road, Kenilworth, have returned from a month's vacation at Bass Lake, the summer home of Mrs. Johnson's mother.

Mrs. Corinne True Will Give Baha'i Talk Sunday

Mrs. Corinne True of Winnetka will be the lecturer at the next public meeting, Sunday afternoon, August 5, at 4 P. M., in the Baha'i foundation hall, at Linden avenue near Sheridan road, Wilmette.

The subject will be: "The Universal Ideals of the Baha'i Temple."

The Baha'i temple is to be a nine-sided building surmounted by a dome, and as beautiful as possible in design and workmanship. It is to stand in a large garden adorned with fountains, trees and flowers, with accessory buildings devoted to educational, charitable and social purposes, it is explained, so that the worship of God may always be closely associated with reverent delight in the beauties of nature and art, and with practical work for the amelioration of social conditions. Louis Bourgeois of Wilmette is the architect.

Bowman's Milk Keeps sweet!

The wonderful sweetness and rich, fine flavor of Bowman's Milk is due to several very definite reasons;

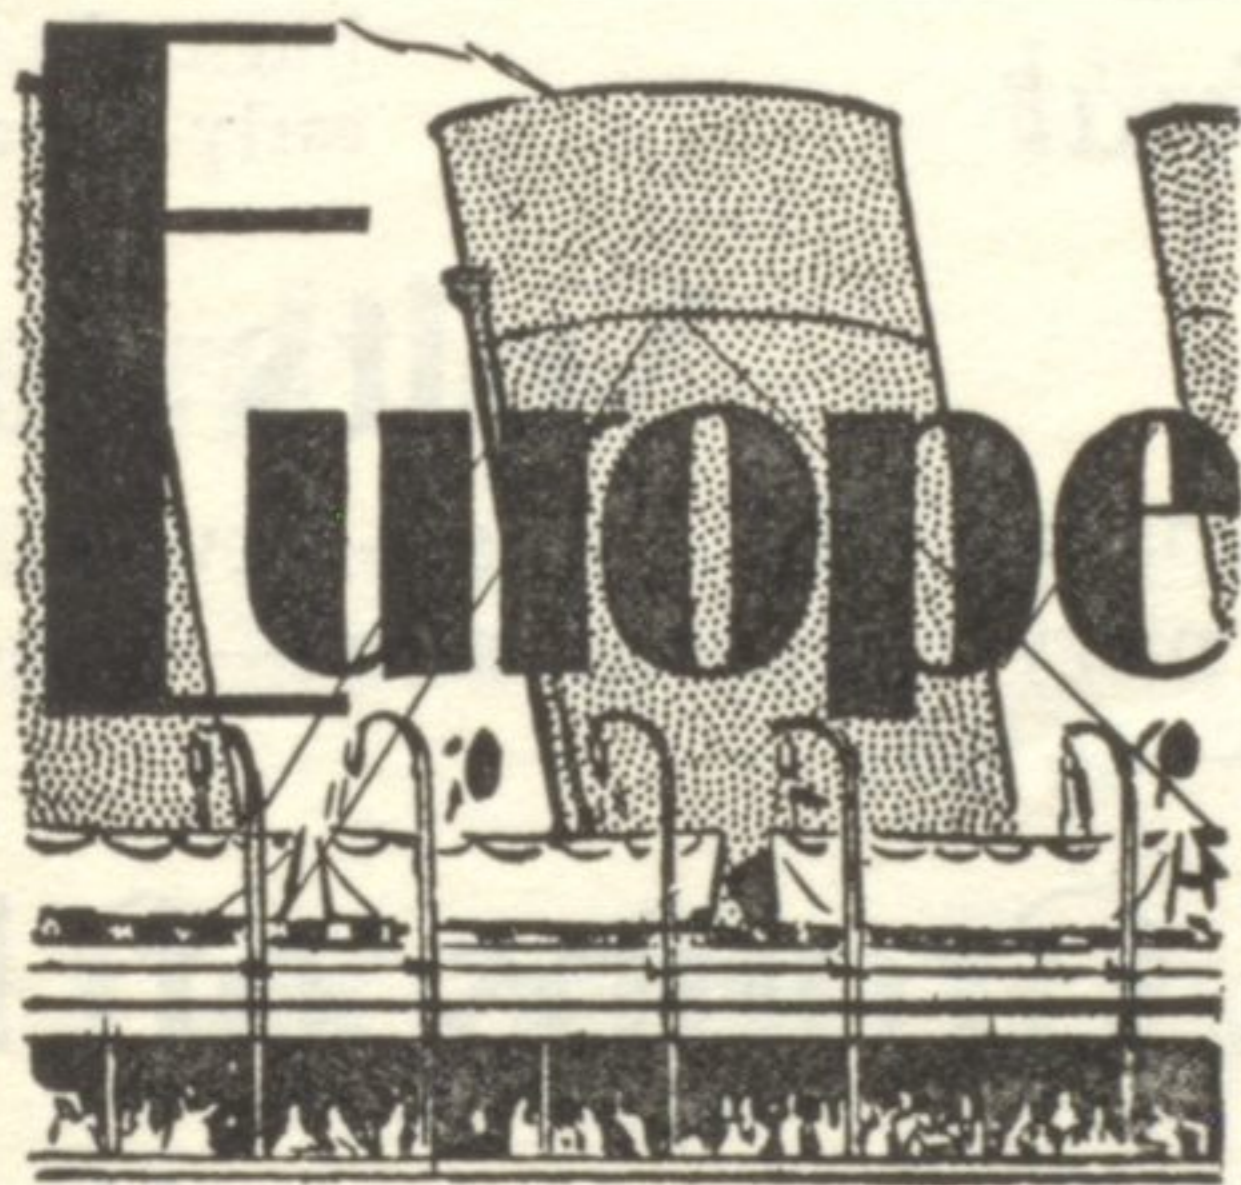

1. Extremely vigilant supervision of the Bowman Farms. Sweetness is assured here.
2. Careful inspection of the milk at our country receiving stations. Milk is also tested for coolness and sweetness here.
3. Perfect cooling and refrigeration from country to city distributing stations. Thus the sweet Bowman's milk is kept sweet.
4. Quick delivery. Every bottle of Bowman's milk is cradled in pure, crushed ice until brought to your doorstep, reaching you as fresh and sweet and rich as when taken from the cow.

Learn from actual experience why Bowman's milk is so popular with your neighbors. Place your order today. Telephone Wilmette 55 or order from the courteous Bowman milkman who passes your door.
