Follies Open in a Blaze of Glory at Four Cohans Sunday

The event of the week in theatrical circles was the opening, in a blaze of glory, of the Greenwich Village Follies at the Four Cohans theatre. Here is a revue, slightly different from the usual variety, but one which profits by the change. Common practice has seemed to indicate the necessity of obtaining one or two individual stars around whom a show, of one kind or another, might be built. A different procedure has been followed here. There are no outstanding stars. Performers compete with each other for laughs, applause and encores. And such vaudeville headliners as Blossom Seeley and Benny Fields are extended to the limit to keep up with the Natch Dancers, the Chester Hale Girls or Jans and Whalen.

Taken as a whole, the show is one of the best all around revues seen here in some time. If you exclude one or two raw sketches, it is a clean show. The dancing is marvelous with the sixteen Chester Hale girls comparing favorably with any group ever seen in Chicago. The comedy is smart and continuous. Costumes are beautiful and apparently new. The settings are satisfactory.

The outstanding comedian carries the name of Doctor Rockwell. A few evenings with him and one might need the services of a real practitioner. Doctor Rockwell is another headliner from vaudeville who has been drafted for revue purposes. A sort of cross between Ed Wynn and Joe Cook, he introduces the acts, plays in the sketches and does an individual turn or two of his own. He is a smart performer and a decidedly funny one.

August may be a hot month but the Four Cohans is decidedly cool and this particular revue well worth a visit.

SHOW COLLEGE MOVIE

Varsity Books "Hold 'Em Yale" for This Saturday; "Ladies of the Mob" to Be Shown Next Week

College movies and college plays are quite popular nowadays. The Varsity theater offers for your approval this Saturday, August 4, Rod La Rocque in "Hold 'em Yale." In this picture Mr. La Rocque forgets his tailor and has a grand time for himself as a South American Jack Gilbert who becomes a football star. Big Tom Kennedy, as a bone-headed cop, and a monkey called "Firpo" contribute to the nonsense. The girl is Jeannette Loff—not so well known but very, very nice.

For the benefit of those who like Miss Clara Bow and also for those who think Mr. Richard Arlen is a big heman the Varsity has scheduled "Ladies of the Mob" for next Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, August 6, 7, and 8. "Ladies of the Mob" is a crook picture. Richard Arlen is a handsome yegg and Clara is his yegges—though not his wife. She feels like a wife toward him and would like to be just that. It is not the usual Clara Bow picture, with the bewitching red-haired miss out to get her man. This time Clara plays a different role, in which she battles in the cause of right and struggles to hold her man. The supporting roles are splendidly portrayed. Clara and Richard are their own recommendation.

Tom Mix Film Heads List of Teatro del Lago Attractions

Tom Mix heads the list of screen actors to be seen at the Teatro del Lago beginning this Saturday, August 4. On that day the Teatro will show "Painted Post," another western picture. The story, summed up in a sentence is this: Tom Blake (Tom Mix), sheriff, saves the pay roll and the girl from the bandits. The girl is Natalie Kingston, a dark-eyed beauty, who in this picture makes her debut in a western opposite Mix. The photography is excellent. Ramon Navarro is the star of "A Certain Young Man," coming to the Teatro del Lago this Sunday, August 5. Navarro plays a young London lord, whose flirtations are the talk of the town until he meets THE girl, and then his efforts to live down his past are comical in the extreme. A charming romance runs through it. Elaborate reproductions of Europe's playgrounds are the scenes of the merry and whimsical love story.

Far surpassing in emotional drama her previous work as a comedienne, Colleen Moore has given a performance in the stellar role of "Happiness Ahead" that unquestionably should be considered the finest of her career. "Happiness Ahead" opens at the Teatro Monday for two days. The story centers about an unsophisticated girl from a small town, who becomes the wife of a city card-shark.
