

KENILWORTH CLUB IN ANNUAL BEACH EVENT

"Miss Kenilworth" to Be Signally Honored in Contests Sunday; Seek Bathing Queen

The annual swimming meet and water carnival, sponsored by the Kenilworth club, will be held Sunday afternoon, August 12, at 3 o'clock at the Kenilworth beach. In case of rough or cold weather, the carnival will be postponed one week.

A unique feature of the event will be a bathing beauty contest, which will be limited to girls of ten years and younger. An artist, a sculptor, and an author, the names of which have not been announced, will judge the beauty contest, and the lucky winner will hereafter be known as "Miss Kenilworth." She will be given a large doll as a prize.

Honor "Miss Kenilworth"

Four other little ladies—the runner-up in the beauty contest and the three ranking next to her—will be maids of honor for "Miss Kenilworth." They will also receive prizes to be donated by the Village garage, Kenilworth store, Kenilworth pharmacy, and an anonymous party.

The entries in the swimming meet will be divided into several different classes, according to age, so that every boy and girl will have as fair a chance as possible. A grand prize will be given for the highest point winners in each class. Ribbons will also be given for each event.

Kenneth Brown is chairman of the beach committee which is planning the water carnival. The committee is being assisted by Jack Doyle, life guard at the beach. Two canoe races for juniors and seniors have been arranged as a special feature of the annual event.

Following are the classifications made for those taking part in the tournament: teenie-weenies, age eight and nine; middies, age ten and eleven; midgets, age twelve and thirteen; juniors, age fourteen and fifteen; and seniors, age sixteen and seventeen.

The list of events for the water carnival is as follows:

Kenilworth News

Mrs. Joseph Joyce of 531 Essex road has just received a response from Philadelphia to the appeal made for the disabled soldiers. Funds are needed to transport the men from the Great Lakes hospital to the ball games to which passes had been given them. The amount of twenty dollars is needed for each bus trip so the appeal is made for the necessary funds in the hope that persons nearer than Philadelphia will aid the veterans. Further information about the work may be obtained from Mrs. Joyce at Kenilworth 2134 or checks may be mailed to Mrs. Finnegan in care of the American Red Cross at Great Lakes.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Farley of 300 Abbottsford road, Kenilworth, have returned from a two weeks' fishing trip at Isle Royale, Lake Superior, Mich. Mr. and Mrs. Farley were there last year. Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Johnston and Miss Harriet and Miss Ruth Johnston, of 321 Melrose avenue, joined the Farleys at Rock Harbor lodge and returned home with them.

The Kenilworth Home and Garden club members participated actively in the Barrington Flower show Tuesday and took two ribbons with their entries. Mrs. W. W. Wheelock of 132 Oxford road displayed an arrangement of snap-dragons in an amber bowl. Mrs. Benjamin Bisbee showed a spray of mulberry in a Rookwood vase.

Mrs. J. H. Stiller and small son, Junior, who was born July 14 at Grant hospital, Chicago, are leaving August 20 for Honolulu, where they will meet Lieut. Stiller who is stationed there. Mrs. Stiller was formerly Hazel Frazer, 645 Abbottsford road, Kenilworth. Lieut. Stiller left August 1 for his new post in Honolulu.

F. E. M. Cole of 315 Essex road, Kenilworth has just returned from Battle Creek, Mich. where he and a number of Evanston and North Shore men were the guests of the Kellogg Corn Flakes corporation for a day of golf. This affair is given each year for a number of advertising men.

Miss Jane Darling, 256 Kenilworth avenue, Kenilworth, has gone up to Manitowish, Wis. to be the guest of Miss Jean Keith of Kenilworth, who is spending the summer at the Keith home there. Miss Jane Sowers and Miss Mary Fowler are also at Manitowish with Miss Darling.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Jackson and Miss Alice Mae Jackson of 1017 Elmwood avenue have returned from a trip to Denver and the Colorado Rockies. They will soon motor to their summer home on Portage lake, in Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. John Marshall Roberts and their daughter Martha of 328 Warwick road, Kenilworth, have just returned from a motor trip.
