Winterbothams Build New Home in Westmoor Trail

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Winterbotham, for many years residents of Winnetka, broke ground last week for their new home in Westmoor Trail. The new residence is to be of solid masonry construction, finished in rough Wisconsin limestone. Mr. and Mrs. Winterbotham returned a few days ago from a trip to Wisconsin where they made a personal selection of the character of stone that they are to put into their new home, which is to be of strictly Colonial type, after designs by Mr. Varney, also a resident of Winnetka.

It is contemplated that the home will be ready for occupancy this Fall. This is the first of two or three homes that are contemplated going into this new Westmoor Trail subdivision overlooking the Skokie Valley.

Improvement Work Well Under Way in Westmoor

The H. G. Goelitz Company of Oak Park, which was awarded the contract for putting in the complete improvements in Westmoor Trail, expect to have the entire work finished not later than September 10. This includes sanitary sewer, storm water sewer, underground electric lighting and telephones, paving, parkways and side walks.

Upon completion of these improvements, this subdivision of Glen C. Bull will commence to build up as a large number of Winnetka residents have purchased home-sites, who plan to build homes in the near future.
