E. F. Wieboldt Buys Block in Glencoe to Build Home

Elmer F. Wieboldt of Glencoe has purchased from Clarence E. Chapman of New York an entire block of residential property in Glencoe. This is known locally as Block 17. It comprises six and one-half acres and projects westerly from Grove street into the grounds of the Skokie Country club, two blocks south of the club house.

Mr. Wieboldt intends to erect a residence on two or three acres and to dispose of the rest as two or three homesites. All of the proposed sites will have frontage on the golf course.

Gilbert D. Johnson & Brother negotiated the transaction, and will also represent Mr. Wieboldt in the retailing of parcels in his new purchase.

Miss Jean Armstrong of 365 Sheridan road has Miss Virginia Normer of Detroit as her houseguest.

HAVE REUNION DINNER

The "Hungry Twelve," a dinner club of north shore residents which was in existence several years ago, met last Monday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Coram T. Davis, Bertling lane, for a reunion dinner. Two couples meeting with the club were from the opposite coasts of the United States, Mr. and Mrs. George Slocum, former residents of Wilmette now living in Fresno, Cal., and Mr. and Mrs. Todd Hyatt, former residents of Winnetka, now of Orlando, Fla. Mr. and Mrs. Slocum left Tuesday after a week's visit with her sister, Mrs. Delbert Poff of 739 Walden road.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Hurd and her daughter, Natalie, of 518 Sunset road returned last Tuesday from their summer home at Long lake, Wis., where they spent three weeks. Miss Jean Ashman of Deerfield was Miss Natalie's guest there.
