

Reelected to World W. C. T. U. Offices

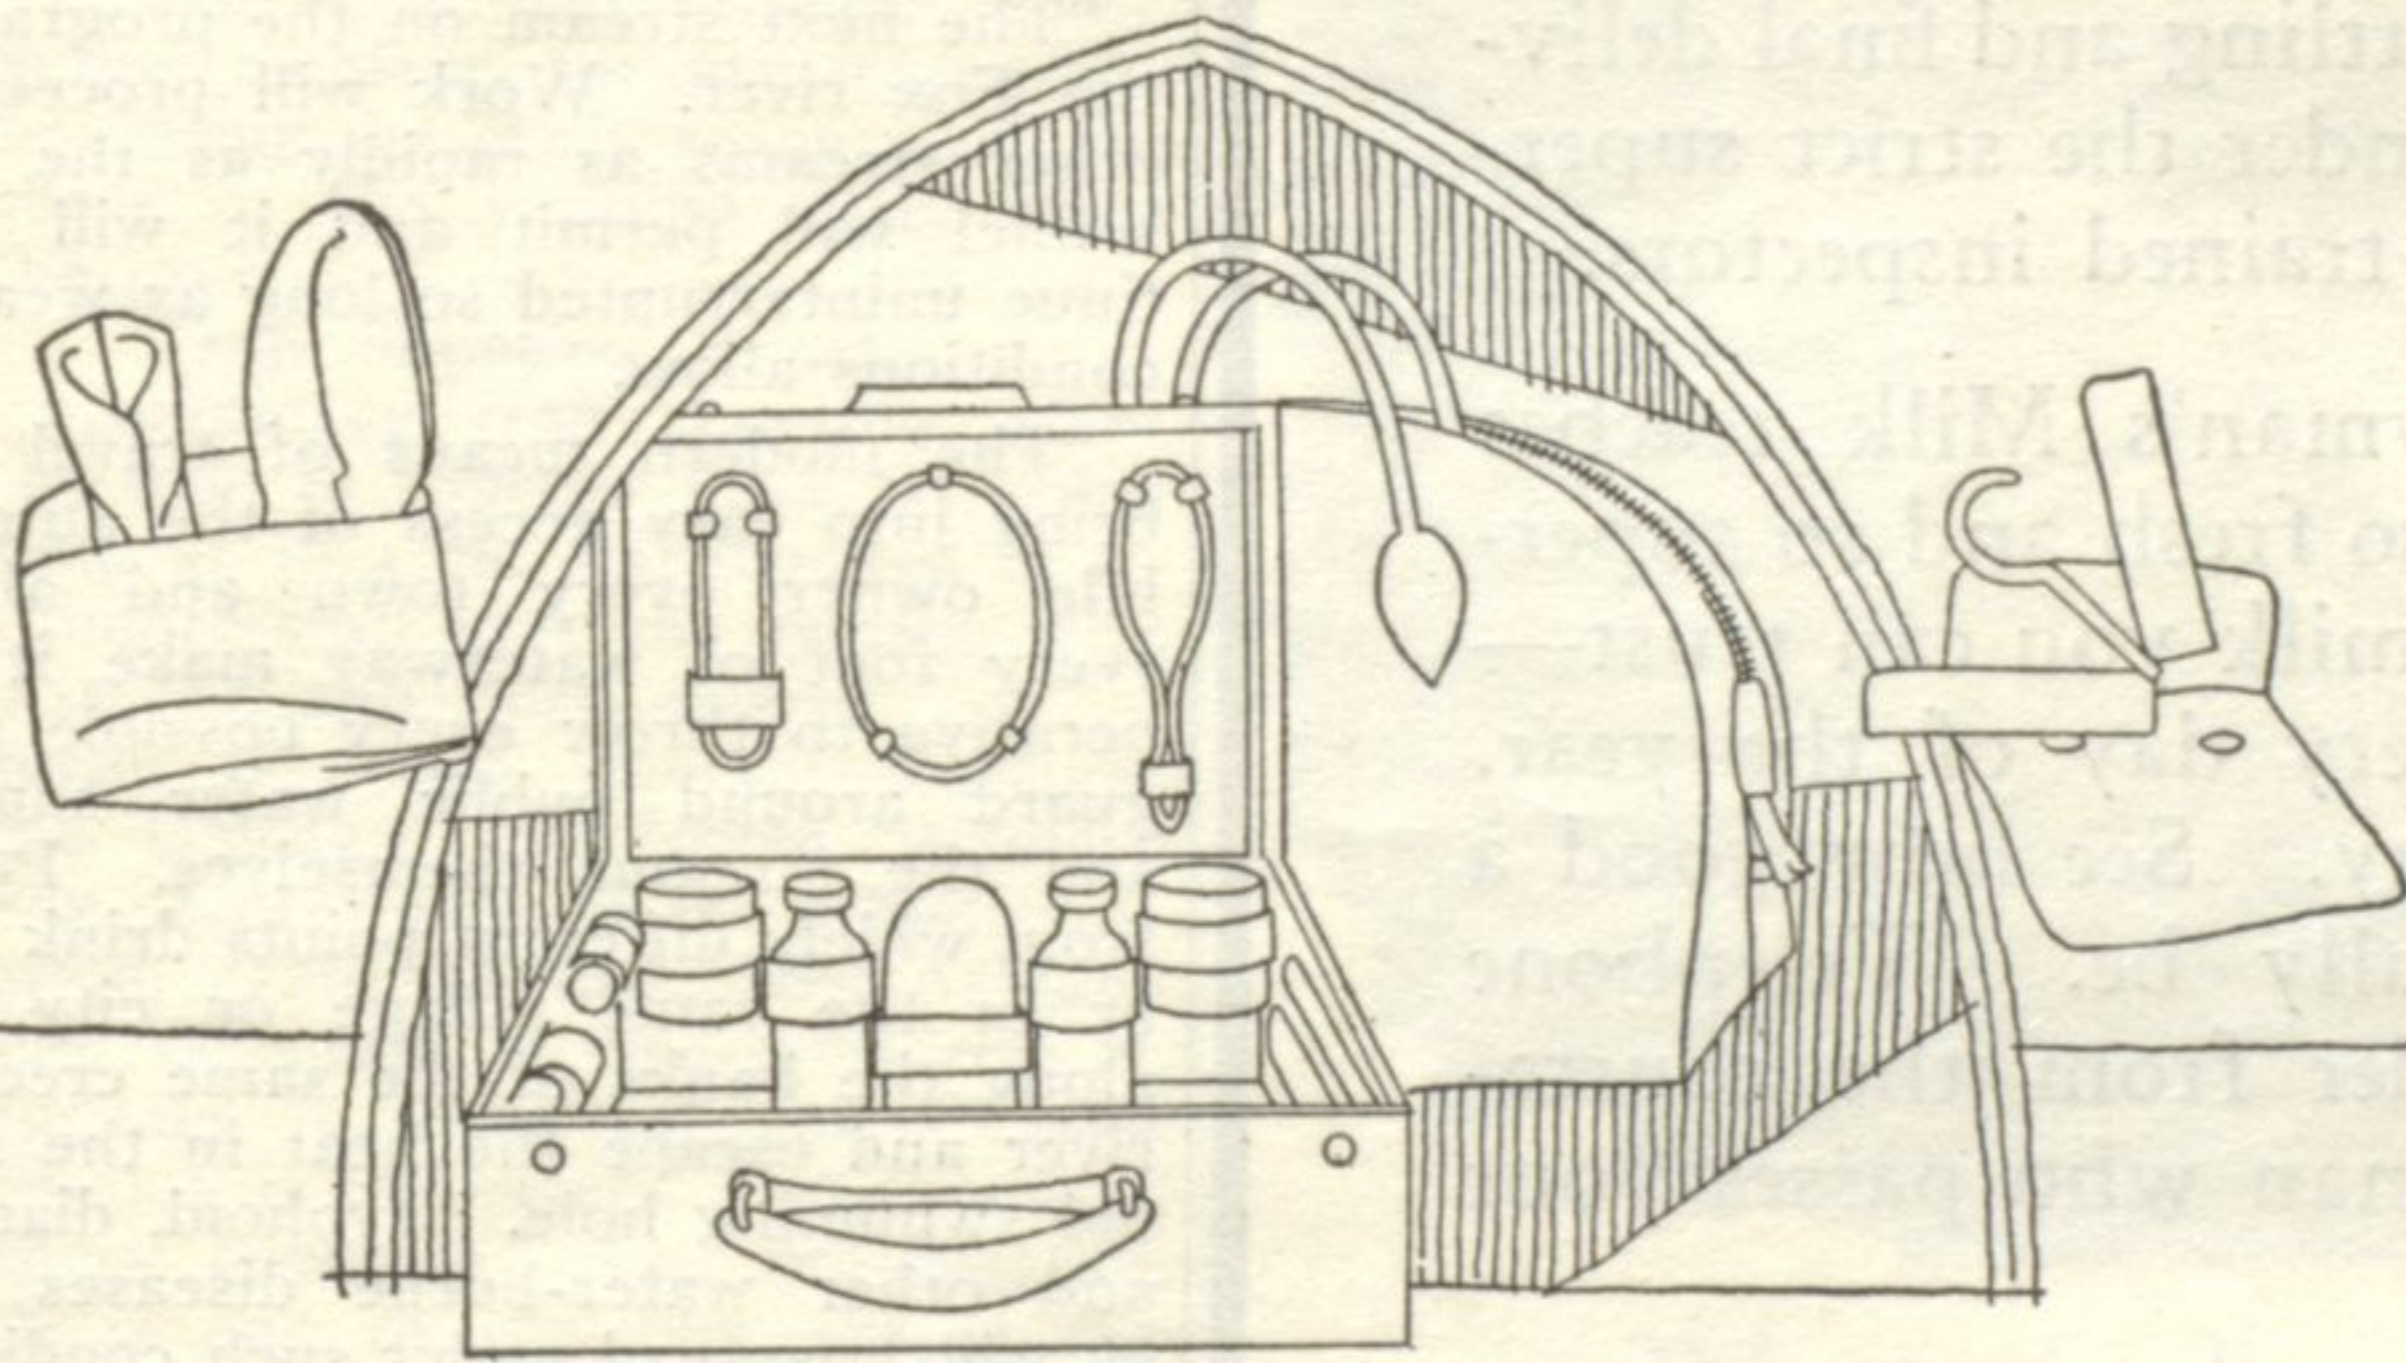

Miss Anna Adams Gordon (right) of Rest Cottage, Evanston, who has carried on the work of temperance education which she began when secretary to Frances E. Willard, founder of the Woman's Christian Temperance union, was honored by re-election to the world presidency of the organization at the Lausanne conference which north shore women are attending. Mrs. Ella A. Boole, (left) who succeeded Miss Gordon in the national office of president, was chosen first vice president of the world order.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Beardslee of 560 Elm street, left Thursday for Lake Mills, Wis. for the remainder of the summer. Pardee Beardslee has returned from a western trip with Ted Bersbach and is at Lake Mills. Ruth and Alice Beardslee will go there as soon as their camp term is over, the end of August.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Shiderick of Madison Park will be weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Coffin, 841 Prospect avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Conrad and son, John Richard, of 1418 Scott avenue, are leaving shortly to spend the rest of the season at Cape Cod, Mass.
