- Always drive fast out of alleys.
- Always race with locomotives to crossings. Engineers like it; it breaks the monotony of their job.
- Always pass the car ahead on curves or turns. Don't use your horn, it may unnerve the other fellow and cause him to turn out too far.
- Demand half the road—the middle half. Insist on your rights.
- Always speed; it shows people you are a man of pep even though an amateur driver.
- Never stop, look or listen at a railroad crossing. It consumes time.
- Always lock your brakes when skidding. It makes the job more artistic.
- Always pass cars on hills. It shows you have more power and you can turn out if you meet a car at the top.
- Never look around when you back up. There is never anything behind you.
- Drive confidently, just as though there were not twenty-three million other cars in service.
