

Lake Shore Clubs Carry Activities to Season's Close

Yacht Clubs, Beach Clubs Come to End of Season's Parties

The season of yacht club activities and beach club play days is about over. There will be many nice days in September and October, but the weather will not be dependable. Cold days discourage the parties by the lakeside, for there is no colder place than the lake shore on a cold day.

The Sheridan Shore Yacht club staged an exciting race last Saturday between the wives and friends of its members. Boats were borrowed for the afternoon and the women were the sailors.

Mrs. Earl de Moe won the race sailing her husband's boat, "Dream Star." Mrs. J. Corcoran sailed Commodore Harold Elliott's boat, "Carol," taking second place. The third place was won by Mrs. Wesley Bowman sailing the "Stork," belonging to her brother, Dr. Charles E. Galloway. Prizes were given to first and second place and a consolation prize to the last boat finishing.

During the afternoon, the guests who were not sailing boats played bridge. The next bridge party will be Saturday afternoon, September 1. Two dances are being planned for the end of the month, one for this Saturday night and one for the Saturday of September 1.

The Buccaneers' club, which finds its home in the famous "Port of Missing Men," has done very little this year in the way of organized club social activities. A large dance was given early this month, but no others have been planned for the rest of the season.

Instead, the activities that have been carried on are the many individual parties given by the club members. The speed boats and sail boats have been sailed in many informal races and the club has been the point of departure for many short cruises about the lake. The club has also been a favorite place to hold swimming parties during the hot summer.

Last Monday night Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Atkin of Indian Hill road, Winnetka, gave a party for Mrs. Edward Isom, a former resident of Winnetka who is now the houseguest of Mrs. Robert Laird of Ridge avenue, Winnetka.

The Club Vista del Lago is having its usual number of members entertaining there. One party of interest was given by Mr. and Mrs. Wirt Farley of 870 Bryant avenue, Winnetka. Forty guests were entertained at dinner on Tuesday night, August 14, for Mrs. Farley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Sydney Putney of Waukesha, Wis. The celebration was occasioned by the Putney's fiftieth wedding anniversary. Two sons, Roy N. Putney of Waukesha and Aaron Sydney Putney, Jr. of Chicago were among the guests.

Mrs. Edgar F. Alden Entertain I. W. A. C.

Mrs. Edgar Foster Alden of 352 Linden avenue entertained more than two hundred of the "old guard" of the Illinois Women's Athletic club at a large garden party from 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon until midnight last Saturday at her home. The entertainment included community singing and short talks given by various club officials. Mrs. Bertha M. Severin, founder president; Mrs. M. J. Seifert and Mrs. Goldy Young the two vice-presidents, and Mrs. Kearney Spencer, and Mrs. Minna Schmidt of Evanston were among the speakers.

Two Midsummer Brides

Photo by Ray

Mrs. E. H. Berglund

Miss Elizabeth Jeanne Curll became the bride of Edmund Harry Berglund, August 11, in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Kifer Curll of Wilmette. Mr. Berglund is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Berglund of Glencoe. Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Berglund will reside at 1710 Atkinson avenue, Milwaukee.

Photo by DuBois

Mrs. Philip A. May

Visiting Debutantes Are Guests at Many Parties

Two visiting debutantes are doing much to enliven the affairs of the younger people at the present time. Miss Austin Wilson who is visiting at the home of Miss Virginia Wallace, 815 Mount Pleasant road, and Miss Polly Odell of Newburgh on the Hudson who is the guest of Miss Margot Atkin, 12 Indian Hill road, are being entertained during their stay here.

Miss Wilson and Miss Wallace spent several days last week with Miss Ruth Hunter of Lake Forest. Informal events filled the early part of the week and the first larger party was that given yesterday by Miss Wallace at Indian Hill. She entertained at luncheon and bridge for Miss Wilson and then last night gave a dinner and dance at the Vista del Lago, also for her.

This evening Miss Atkin is entertaining at dinner at Indian Hill for Miss Odell and there will be the regular club dancing later. Sunday, A. R. Carman of Evanston is to be host at a Treasure Hunt to be held at Bensenville, Ill., at which the girls will be honored guests.

Miss Wallace and another Winnetka girl who made her debut last year, Miss Betty Pain of 1417 Tower road are planning to have an unusual winter. They will leave for Paris late in September or the first week in October and will study at the Sorbonne during the winter months.

Mrs. L. A. Weary of Winnetka entertained at luncheon and bridge for sixty guests on August 14, and Mrs. F. E. Seneor of 592 Cherry street, Winnetka entertained at a smaller luncheon on Thursday of last week.

Miss Betty Frey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Daniel Frey of 80 Locust road gave a tea Friday, August 17, for Miss Muriel Hedges of New York City who is the houseguest of Miss Frey.

Miss Mary O'Connor Weds Philip A. May

Attired in an ivory satin dress trimmed in lace from her grandmother's wedding dress, Miss Mary Louise O'Connor was married Thursday night, August 16, to Philip Arthur May in St. Mary's church, Evanston.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. O'Connor of 718 Elmwood avenue, Wilmette, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip E. May of 562 Sheridan square, Evanston. Her dress was in the popular style of uneven hemlines, and old lace was used to make a cape-like bertha. Her veil was of tulle held to her head with a coronet of real lace brought from Europe last spring by the bride's mother. Her bouquet was of orchids and valley lilies.

Miss Alice Slattery of Chicago was the maid of honor and wore a dress cut in the period style of orchid taffeta and chiffon. She wore a Juliet cap of tulle and carried an old-fashioned bouquet of flowers. Miss Margaret Spear of Evanston, dressed in a similar costume in pink; Miss Dorothea Garvey of Chicago, in green; and Miss Grace Boyle of Chicago, in peach, were the bridesmaids.

The best man was Dean Dodson of Chicago. The ushers were Walter May, Edwin Berwick, Curtis Gibbs, John O'Connor, and Theodore Strehlow. The Rev. Francis J. Magner read the service. LeRoy Wetzell, director of the Paulist choir of Chicago, played the wedding march and the organ music during the service.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. O'Connor received for the young couple at their residence in Wilmette. Mr. and Mrs. May will be at home after September 6 in Evanston. They left after the reception for a motor trip through Canada and the east.

Skokie Club to Hear Lyric Voice, Cellist at Fourth Musicale

A program of unusual interest has been arranged for the fourth Sunday afternoon musicale, which will be given at 4:30 o'clock Sunday, at the Skokie Country club. Miss Helen Hedges, lyric soprano, and Richard Wagner, cellist, have selected numbers that have proven popular with just such informal audiences as those at Skokie. Mrs. Dwight C. Orcutt will accompany Miss Hedges at the piano, and Charles Lurvey will accompany Mr. Wagner.

Miss Hedges studied in Chicago under Mary Peck Thompson and Richard Hageman, and in Paris under Andre Balbis. In Vichy, France, she worked with Jean Dereske. She has appeared as soloist with the Detroit Symphony orchestra, the Mendelssohn club, the Marshall Field chorus, and other leading musical groups. Mr. Wagner is the son of the noted cellist, Franz Wagner, and before joining the Chicago Symphony orchestra he was a member of the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra. He is also a member of the Gordon string quartet. The program Sunday will be as follows:

I
Andante, Third Concerto Goltermann
Concert Polonaise Popper
Mr. Wagner
II
Cantares Turina
Beautiful, Art Thou My Love Hyde
Swans Kramer
Zueignung Strauss
Las Locas por Amor Turina
Miss Hedges
III
Ariette Oubliee Debussy
Minuet Rameau
Elegie Brandoukoss
Gavotte Perrin
Mr. Wagner
IV
At Kamakura Dyer
Transformation Watts
Bell Song, "Lakme" Delibes
Miss Hedges

Mrs. Edward Isom Is Honored Eastern Guest

Mrs. George Calkins, 1030 Hubbard lane, who recently returned from a trip in the east brought with her a former Winnetka resident who has, this past week, been the guest of honor at many parties. Mrs. Calkins visited Mrs. Edward Isom at her home in Scarsdale, N. Y., and after driving to Portland, Maine to visit with Mrs. Calkin's four children who are in camps there, they returned to Winnetka together. Mrs. Isom is the houseguest of Mrs. R. S. Laird of 225 Ridge avenue who entertained for her at a luncheon at Indian Hill last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Atkin, 12 Indian Hill road, gave a dinner at the Buccaneer's club for Mrs. Isom early in the week and on Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Erskine Wilder gave a dinner dance for twelve at the Vista del Lago. Yesterday, Mrs. George Calkins was hostess at a "golf luncheon" at Indian Hill club.

This evening Mr. and Mrs. R. Biddle of 290 Forest avenue are entertaining at a dinner to be given before the club dancing at Indian Hill. Mr. and Mrs. K. Fosdick, Mrs. Fosdick is Mrs. Biddle's niece, will be guests of honor as well as Mrs. Isom at this last dinner. Mrs. Isom is leaving Monday for her home.

Announce Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Hannah, 256 Woodstock avenue, Kenilworth, announce the engagement of their daughter, Elizabeth, to Mr. Louis B. Roeser of Boston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Roeser of New York City.