

WINNETKA TALK

THRILLS THAT WILL LAST—Opera enthusiasts regretting that the Ravinia season is to close next Monday will have good reason to remember Mario Chamlee (left) and Edward Johnson who did so much to make the season perhaps the most successful in the history of opera at the north shore home of classical music.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1928