

Fire Department Gets Four Calls in 5 Hours

The Winnetka fire department responded to four calls within a period of five hours, Wednesday evening, none of which fires resulted in much damage. The first was at 650 Blackthorne road, the second at the home of Ralph K. Rockwood, 598 Lincoln avenue, and the other two were at 615 Ash street, where, twice in succession, the firemen were called to extinguish a fire in the roof of a garage. A short circuit in the electric wiring was the cause of the last two fires.

Summer Tutoring School to Close September 15

Miss Harris' Summer Tutoring school will close another successful season in the Glencoe Union church on September 15. Miss Harris' schools in Chicago will reopen for the eighth year on Wednesday, September 26. The continued demand for preparation for Eastern schools has necessitated the addition of trained men from recognized Eastern standard schools.

FORMER RESIDENT HERE

Mrs. J. H. Barnes of 238 Poplar street entertained at luncheon and bridge Wednesday afternoon of last week for Mrs. Todd Hyatt, former resident of Winnetka, who is here on a visit from Orlando, Fla. Mrs. Hyatt entertained several of her friends last Saturday afternoon at the Edgewater Beach hotel at luncheon and bridge.

REOPEN BRANCH SCHOOL

The Winnetka branch studio of the Highland Park Music school will be reopened on Monday, September 10, at 585 Lincoln avenue, under the direction of Ethel Lathrop Marley. Miss Marley is head of the Highland Park school also.

JUST PARAGRAPHS

It is pleasant to think in this trying weather—it may be cold by the time we go to press—of someone being cool. Such it seems is the case with Edwin Arlington Robinson, who, his publisher reports, is spending the summer at Peterborough, the MacDowell colony, where he has done most of his poetic work.

A life of Thomas Hardy will appear in the Fall. Most of the material was gathered by his wife, Florence Emily Hardy, from his own diaries and writings. At the same time plans are going forward for a memorial to Hardy in his native Dorsetshire which he made so famous.

St. John Ervine, well known as novelist and playwright, the most famous among his plays perhaps being "Jane Clegg," has been weaned away from London to become dramatic critic for the New York Herald-Tribune. It will be interesting to hear a new voice in the familiar chorus.

Canadian Romance Latest Book by Johnston Abbott

The heroine of Johnston Abbott's new romance of early Canada is Denise, the beautiful and arrogant ward of a French nobleman. The hero, Paul de Ste. Etienne of Quebec, who tells the story, is a most likable fellow. A search for silver mines in the wilderness, the disappearance of Gaston, Paul's cousin, the complications which arise because of his supposed death, and the dangers of the search for him among unfriendly Indians make the tale thrilling reading. It is a romance of pure adventure, with its setting in New France, the Canada of two centuries ago. Incident follows incident with a rapidity which reminds one of Dumas.

Mr. Abbott calls his novel "The Seigneurs of La Saulaye." It was announced for publication on August 7.

AMELIA EARHART'S BOOK

The title of Amelia Earhart's book has been announced as—20 hrs., 40 min. "Our Flight in The Friendship," will be the sub title. The tentative publication date for this book is September 7.
