HOLD RUMMAGE SALE (Contributed)

The Ladies' guild of Christ church, Winnetka, have announced October 18 as the date of their rummage sale, to be held at the Parish house, Oak and Linden streets, between the hours of 8 in the morning and 9 o'clock that night. Contributions are eagerly solicited. Discarded clothing, children's apparel, men's suits or overcoats, ladies' dresses, gloves, hats, coats and shoes, novelties, underwear, furniture, kitchen ware, glass, lamps, books. The articles may be sent to the Parish house at any time or by calling Mrs. William Eldridge, Winnetka 1784, and she will gladly arrange transportation. The proceeds of the sale will be used for the missionary obligations of the Guild and it is hoped that everyone will lend her aid in making the sale a great success.

WIN IN TRIBUNE CONTEST

Two Winnetka women who received prizes in the Tribune Garden contest this year were Mrs. William Crilly of 606 Provident avenue and Mrs. E. H. Johnson of 127 Church road. With a better season and more experience, the contestants generally have better gardens this year than last, according to judges. Hundreds of new names appeared on the entry lists this year, making competition keen.

EXHIBIT PAINTINGS

Helen R. Dawes, 1034 Westmoor road, Winnetka, and William Schmedtgen, 710 Greenleaf avenue, Wilmette, are two local artists displaying their work in the group of Illinois artists' pictures at the seventy-ninth annual State Fair at Springfield.

Lollie Lou Triggs of 1041 Ashland avenue, Wilmette, is spending two weeks at Pentwater, Mich., the guest of Mary Lou Alger of Kenilworth.
