

Men Invite to Their Very Own Flower Exhibit

A flower exhibit of surpassing interest is to be held at the Sherman hotel Friday and Saturday, September 7 and 8, under the sponsorship of the Men's Garden club of the Chicago area, which includes in its membership many amateur gardeners among the men of the north shore.

Competition at the exhibit will be in terms of quality of blooms rather than extensive varieties and color arrangements, according to M. D. White of Winnetka, an amateur gardener of note who has taken many awards in previous exhibits in the Chicago neighborhood.

This exhibit, Mr. White explains, will emphasize the production of high quality flowers rather than color designs.

Residents of the north shore, and particularly those who are interested in flower culture, have been urgently invited to attend the Sherman hotel exhibit.

REPUTATION . . . Each thing Lyon & Healy has done it is known to have done well. The Lyon & Healy store in Evanston is characterized by the same completeness for music needs that has distinguished its sponsor in the Loop. In fact the North Shore has eliminated the Loop from its "music habits." Here it can find pianos, radios, phonographs, records, band and orchestra instruments; and cameras—for both still and moving pictures. Needs in pianos are open to a wide range, covering the Steinway, and other fine makes that are the "Steinway" of their class; $475 to $5,250.
