How many of these faces did you guess correctly?

HERE are the correct answers to the Who's Who teasers appearing in last week's WINNETKA TALK.

If you entered the contest, look them over and see how near one hundred per cent you were with your solution. But whether you were a contestant or not, you'll find it interesting to peruse these pages and renew your acquaintance with many of the leaders in Winnetka business circles.

Many Winnetka people will cut out these pages and keep them in a convenient place for ready reference. We suggest that you do the same—you'll find it a handy and compact directory of representative business firms of the community.
