

WANT FOOTBALL FOE

Black and White Team of Winnetka Begins Practice, Seeks Opponent for Sunday, September 23

The first football of the season will be played at Skokie Playfield, Sunday, September 23, for which date the Black and White team of Winnetka is now casting about for an opposing eleven that will insure an interesting game.

At the meeting Wednesday evening, called for preliminary re-organization of the Black and White organization, 20 well known local players responded for enrollment, and Friday evening of this week was set for the date of the first practice.

Hereafter, Captain Les Carlson will have his Black and White squad out for practice each Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday evening. Bob Doepel will again serve as line coach and H. P. Clarke will have charge of the back-field training.

All of last year's famous line is again enrolled for play, including Bill Blow, Les Carlson, Leif Jensen, George Conner, Harry Porter, J. Eckart, G. Rudolph, E. Flynn and W. Dahl, while in the backfield are numbered such well known players as Agate Martin, Marvin Baker, Beach Affeldt, F. Wagner, P. Jackett, G. Phillips, W. Rohn, George Spence, Don Lichtenberger and E. Belmont.

Never has Winnetka approached the opening of the football season with greater enthusiasm and a better team. Those who know confidently anticipate that the team will exceed the snappy playing which featured the entire Black and White schedule last season.

Mrs. E. R. Cogswell, 512 Hawthorne lane, is entertaining her sister, Mrs. E. S. Barker of Boston, as her house-guest.

Church School Teachers Attend Conference Today

Today and Sunday several teachers of Christ church school will go to Wheaton for a week-end conference for church school workers. Miss Mabel Lee Cooper of New York, the author of "Seven Psychological Portraits," will lead the general conferences. In addition to Miss Cooper's conferences, there will be coaching classes in each of the grades conducted by some expert from the Diocese of Chicago. The conference is under the direction of Miss Vera Noyes, diocesan director of religious education.

HOME FROM TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Windes and their daughter, Sallie, arrived home Wednesday of this week. Mr. and Mrs. Windes went east several weeks ago to meet Miss Sallie at Montreal on her arrival from her trip abroad. Miss Windes' main object of her trip, though she visited various European countries, was to take a four weeks' course in physical education at the Bertram School of Gymnastics at Copenhagen. During her stay in this city she was delighted with the cordiality and friendliness of the many people with whom she came in contact.

AWAY FOR SUMMER

Mr. and Mrs. Allen E. Philbrick and son, Allen, and daughter, Jane, of 928 Elm street are at Montague, Mich. where they spend their summers. Jane, who won the Chicago Wellesley Club scholarship this year will leave directly from there for college.

Mrs. Dudley Bradstreet of 772 Walden road, who has been on a western trip with her parents this summer, going up the western coast to Vancouver and returning by way of Banff and Lake Louise, arrived home last week.
