Handbook Recounts Varied Activities at the High School

The New Trier Township High school student handbook for 1928-1929 has just come off the press. The book is published annually by T. N. T., honorary society at New Trier High school. This year's book, which is the second one published, contains 81 pages. E. A. Kahler, dean of boys at the high school, was the faculty representative.

The new handbook is a complete summary of New Trier's activities, objectives, and policies. It contains general information as to requirements for entrance, absence, tardiness, discipline, and various school regulations, a directory of the faculty, a synopsis of school activities and traditions, an outline of courses, a school calendar, floor plans of each of the floors in the high school building, and other information about New Trier.

An interesting feature at the back of the book is a directory of 80 colleges and universities, giving the courses offered, entrance requirements, estimates of expenses, and other facts.

INSTALL NEW RABBI

Rabbi Louis J. Kopald was Formally Installed at North Shore Congregation Israel Friday

An event of considerable importance to the Jewish community on the north shore was installation of Rabbi Louis J. Kopald as the rabbi of North Shore Congregation Israel, located in Glencoe, which event took place last evening, at 8 o'clock.

Rabbi Kopald was formerly for many years rabbi in Buffalo, N. Y., and was generally a leader in the civic activities of that city.

The North Shore Congregation Israel, which dedicated its new temple and auditorium in Glencoe early this year, is the first Reformed Jewish Congregation to be organized in any of the north shore suburbs and serves the residents of all the adjoining towns.

The importance of this event, not only to the people of this vicinity but to the Jewish people of the entire country, is indicated by the fact that Dr. Stephen S. Wise of New York, one of the leading Jewish rabbis of the world, installed here especially to deliver the principal address of the occasion. Others of prominence in Chicago and other cities were in attendance.
