Beautiful Mermaid

Miss Viola Allen, who is "Miss American Venus," appearing at the North Shore theater this week has developed considerable of a reputation as a participant in all manner of aquatic sports. She delights in water polo, water ball and other kindred games. She is an adept at plain and fancy swimming and finds no trouble in competing with others in diving.

She has been a lover of the water since early childhood days and it has helped develop her into a sturdy, beautiful young girl. Miss Allen is a fine type of American beauty and her winning of the title of "Miss American Venus" was no surprise to those near her.

Mrs. Guy Stuart Bailey and her children, of 932 Oak street, with Mrs. Laurance Doty of 922 Tower road and her children, returned last Tuesday after a six weeks' vacation. Most of their time was spent at Star Lake, Wis.

Tennis Champion Is Best Bet to Repeat in Hot Tournament

John Sheldon, winner of last year's tennis tournament at the New Trier High school courts and favorite to cop similar honors this year, advanced to the semi-finals in both the junior singles and senior singles divisions of the tournament this week. In the junior singles he defeated John Parker in straight sets 6-3, 6-1, and will play Glover for the right to compete in the finals. Lange defaulted to Glover in the quarter finals.

After losing the first set to McLean by a 6-8 score in the senior singles, Sheldon came back to win the next two 6-4 and 6-3, thereby reaching the semi-finals in that division. In another quarter finals match this week in the men's division Holter defeated Obermeier, Wilmette tennis champion, by scores of 6-1, 1-6, and 6-1.

Methodist Publication Tells of Therapy Work

The current issue of the Home Quarterly, a Methodist publication, carries an illustration of the occupational therapy room at the Evanston hospital illustrating an article by Mary Leonard on "The Contribution of Occupation to Health."

The article describes the work done at the Evanston hospital where 200 patients, during the last year, have carried out the therapy program. The same issue carries an article by Edna Dean Baker of Evanston on "Making Christmas a Means of Spiritual Education."

The Francis Peabody Butlers, who have been spending the summer in Nantucket, Mass., are expected to return to their home on Private road Sunday.
