

Back to Nature at "Duke's" Camp

The above group of Winnetka boys has been enjoying the past eight weeks at Camp Owkonze, in Ontario, Canada. The camp is conducted by "Duke" Childs of New Trier High school. Tom Wolter caught the biggest fish of the summer, a Northern pike weighing eighteen pounds.

Mrs. Allen L. Withers and her daughters, Leila and Allene, are expected to return to their home at 788 Lincoln avenue, tomorrow. Mr. Withers returned about three weeks ago after being in Honolulu with his family and they have stayed on since that time in Santa Barbara, Cal.
