ALCYON MOVIE BILL

"Grip of the Yukon" to Be Shown Today; "Forbidden Hours" Booked for Monday and Tuesday

"The Grip of the Yukon," starring Francis X. Bushman, Neil Hamilton, June Marlowe, and others, will be shown at the Alcyon theater in Highland Park today. There are some fine snow scenes in the picture. June Marlowe, who reminds you a bit of Janet Gaynor in this film, is a dear as the heroine. Mr. Bushman and Mr.
Hamilton are good in their parts.

Jack Mulhall and Greta Nissen play the leads in "The Butter and Egg Man," screen adaptation of the stage success, which comes to the Alcyon this Sunday, September 9. The story is of the country youth who wants to be a big success on Broadway. He is despatched thither by his devoted grandmother who borrows the money to do so, on the little hotel she owns and that they have jointly managed.

The boy falls into the hands of schemers whom, in due time, he outwits, with the help of the actress played by Miss Nissen.

"Forbidden Hours," the story of a king who gave up his throne for love, will be shown on the Alcyon screen next Monday and Tuesday. Ramon Novarro is the king and Renee Adoree the girl he loves. The picture is splendidly acted, well directed, and charmingly costumed and staged.

"The Toilers" Coming Wednesday

Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., plays opposite Jobyna Ralston in "The Toilers," Alcyon attraction for next Wednesday and Thursday. The picture provides young Mr. Fairbanks opportunities aplenty for loving, fighting, and being an all 'round regular fellow. Harvey Clark, Robert Ryan, and Wade Boettler are also in the picture.

"Beau Geste," ranked among the best of motion pictures, will be shown at the Alcyon next Friday, September 14. The picture is a drama of the French Foreign Legion. The theme is the devotion of three young brothers, and their smiling, unflinching sacrifice for each other. Ronald Colman as "Beau" gives one of the finest and most romantic performances of his brilliant career. Colman and Noah Beery as Sergeant Lejaune, "the cruellest beast and bravest soldier" in the Legion, dominate the action, although Neil Hamilton and Ralph Forbes are close rivals for the screen honors.

John Barrymore has signed a contract to make talking pictures for Warner Brothers.
